

Pages 2 & 3: CLUB News

News

Three specially selected news stories from the UK and around the world to inspire debate and discussion.

Cultural input: Queen Elizabeth II, national service

Online extra:

CD: Track 7. Listen to teens discussing national citizen service.

CD: Track 8. Listen to a quiz about British teens' favourite monarchs.

Pages 4 & 5: In the Headlines

The A to Z of ... the London Olympic Games

CLUB presents an A to Z guide to the 'greatest show on Earth' – the Olympic Games!

Language focus: Sports vocabulary

Cultural input: English football

Online activities:

Online extra:

CD: Track 9. Teens talk about the Olympics

Page 6 & 7: Our World

Inside the Teen Brain!

CLUB looks at the science behind teen brains and behaviour.

Language focus: Should vs shouldn't have + past participle

Video: Teens talk about growing up

Online activities:

Page 8 & 9: Global Teens

New Zealand teen

Francesca Silver talks about her love of horse riding and her life in rural New Zealand.

Language focus: Holidays and travel

Online activities:

Online extra:

Pages 10 & 11: Spotlight On...

Ed Sheeran: Britain's unlikely pop star

Ed Sheeran is a highly successful pop star – but doesn't behave the way you might expect.

Language focus: Expressing success and ambition

Online activities:

Online extra:

Pages 12 & 13: Then and Now

The London Olympics

CLUB looks back to the 1948 London Olympic Games, and compares them to those of 2012.

Cultural input: British history

Online activities:

Page 14: So You Want To Be A...

Designer

An interview with Mary Glasgow designer Eddie Rego!

Page 15: The Hotlist

The Hotlist

The best in entertainment for May and June.

Cultural input: Euro 2012, British Sandwich Week, Snow White

Online extra:

Page 16: The Image

London's new tallest building

The Shard is completed this summer, and will be the tallest building in the EU. How does it compare to other London landmarks?

Cultural input: London skyline