Hints and tips for sharing this book with a child

Here are some ideas for ways to make sharing this book even more fun!

The four best friends live together.

What is each friend doing?

Who is your best friend?

Which games do you like playing together?

The best friends have an argument, and fall out with each other.

How can you tell that the friends are feeling cross?

Can you think of a time when you have fallen out with someone? How did it make you feel?

The friends all go away to different places.

Where is your favourite place?

Have you ever been to the seaside, up a mountain, inside a cave, or to a big city? What did you do there?

The friends miss their home, and they miss each other.

Have you ever felt homesick?

What are some of the things that you miss when you are away from home?

The friends have fixed their house, and they've made it even better than before!

What have they added to their house?

Now that the friends can travel around together, where do you think they might go?

Draw a picture of your perfect house.
