Trumpety Trump!

Steve Smallman, illustrated by Adria Meserve

Pub date: July

Paperback: 9781407121819 £6.99

Sales territories: WOR

Meet the rudest elephant in the jungle in this riotous rhyming picture book full of humour – with a very important lesson about friendship.

Elliott Elephant is so busy having fun that he stops thinking about his friends – he charges and barges, he belly-flops into the water with an almighty splash, and he even toot-toots from both ends!

But one day after Elliott stomps on Mouse's home, the rest of the animals in the jungle have had enough and teach Elliott that if he starts to care for others surrounding him they will care about him.

Steve Smallman is best known for Smelly Peter, The Great Pea Eater which won the Sheffield Children's Book Award 2009. He has written and illustrated children's books for nearly 30 years. Steve lives in Staffordshire.

Adria Meserve is the illustrator of many successful picture books, including The Mermaid, The Prince and the Happy Ever After. She gained an MA in Sequential Design and Illustration from Brighton University, and alongside writing and illustrating picture books she teaches art. Adria lives in London.

George's Dragon Goes to School

Claire Freedman, illustrated by Russell Julian

From the bestselling author of Aliens Love Underpants comes a brand new adventure for George and his pet dragon, Sparky.

"Bring your pet to school" week is approaching and George cannot wait to show Sparky off. But Mum's worried, because Sparky is not only huge but also unbelievably clumsy. Sparky's mishap gets the school fire alarm going and everyone is evacuated to the swimming pool building where the children are about to have their swimming lesson. But the heating is off and the water is freezing cold. It looks like only a dragon with impressive fire-breathing skills can save the day!

Shrinking Violet is Totally Famous

Lou Kuenzler

Pub date: July

Paperback: 9781407130064 £5.99

Sales Territories: WOR

The third book in this hilarious series about Violet, who is normal size one minute and pocket-size the next!

When Violet finds out her favourite café is about to be closed down, she is determined to find a way of keeping it open. Perhaps she can persuade her favourite celebrity stuntwoman, Stella Lightfoot, to join the campaign when she comes to town on a book tour? But when Violet shrinks and ends up in Stella's luggage on location, she finds out that her idol is not who she seems. Violet might just be the only one who can save Stella's reputation ... and in turn, Stella might be willing to help save the café too.

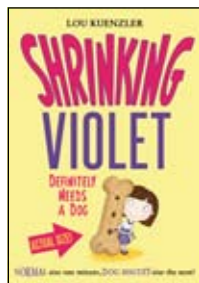

Lou Kuenzler was brought up on the edge of Dartmoor before moving to Northern Ireland to study theatre. She went on to work as a theatre director, a university drama lecturer and a drama workshop leader. Lou lives in North London with her family.

The Brilliant World of Tom Gates

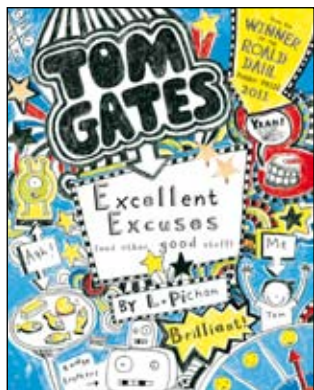

"When my teacher, Mr Fullerman, doesn't have his BEADY EYES on me, I like to draw pictures and write stories about stuff, like when we had the worst holiday ever (camping sucks), and when my parents came to school for parents' evening (groan). And about how Marcus Meldrew is the most annoying boy in the world and how I don't want to sit next to him in class. All I want to do is get tickets to see the best band ever, DUDE3, when they come to town. It's not easy when I'm up against Delia, my weirdo big sister, and all my plans seem to get me into MAJOR TROUBLE ... again."

Tom Gates: Excellent Excuses (And Other Good Stuff)

"No school for two whole weeks! (Yeah!) I can forget ALL about lessons (and irritating things like Marcus Meldrew) and concentrate on good stuff like: inventing new ways to annoy my sister Delia (so many). Band practice for DOGZOMBIES (with my mate Derek). Watching TV and eating caramel wafers. Eating caramel wafers and watching TV. Excellent. Unfortunately a couple of small problems called the dentist and Delia, seem to be getting in the way of my BRILLIANT plans ..."

A bold and innovative new fantasy series from bestselling authors including Brandon Mull, Maggie Stiefvater and Garth Nix.

Enter the world of Erdas, where four children separated by vast distances all undergo the same ritual, and the unmistakable shapes of incredible beasts – a wolf, a leopard, a panda, and a falcon – emerge. The paths of these children – and the world – will be changed forever. The fate of Erdas will fall on their shoulders, as a dark force from distant and long-forgotten lands will begin an onslaught that will ravage the world. Join the children on their journey with this part engrossing book series, part action role-playing online game.

Brandon Mull is the author of the New York Times, Wall Street Journal and USA Today bestselling Beyonders and Fablehaven series. He lives in America.

Spirit Animals: Hunted*, the second book in the series, is published January 2014.

The journey continues at www.spiritanimals.com, where you can create your own character and spirit animal to train and bond with. Develop you and your spirit animal skills and battle against the dark forces that threaten Erdas.

Jedi Academy

Jeffrey Brown

Told through comics, journal entries, letters and doodles, this laugh-out-loud intergalactic adventure captures all the fun and frustrations of school – perfect for Star Wars and Diary of a Wimpy Kid fans alike.

Roan's dream is to leave home and attend Pilot Academy like his older brother, father and grandfather. But just as Roan is mysteriously denied entrance to Pilot School, he is invited to attend Jedi Academy – a school that only recruits children when they are just a few years old. That is, until now...

Under the tutelage of Master Yoda, Roan learns that he possesses more strength and potential than he could have ever dreamed... if he can pass basic maths. Being a Jedi might not be so bad after all.

Jeffrey Brown is the author and illustrator of the internationally bestselling Darth Vader & Son. He is a lifelong Star Wars fan, but despite his best efforts, has been unable to use the Force. Jeffrey lives in Chicago with his family.

The Unbelievable Top-Secret Diary of Pig

Emer Stamp

Meet Pig and read his extraordinary diary...

Pig feels very lucky. He has a best friend, Duck. Pig is sure that he's Farmer's favourite because Farmer gives him lots of yummy slops and lots of special back scratches. His only problem is the Evil Chickens, who not only steal his food but are also building a space tractor-rocket (trocket) in which they want to send Pig to Pluto – where there wouldn't be any food at all. No way is he going! His problems get much bigger, however, when Duck reveals the real reason why Farmer gives Pig so much food and calls him Roast Pork. Faced with the chopping board, the Evil Chickens' space mission is suddenly Pig's only option.

A funny, touching story about change, friendship and first love.

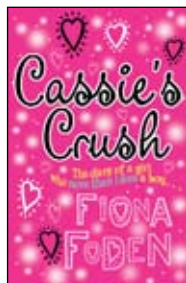

Josie has lived on her riverboat, Promise, her whole life. She finds it easier to walk on deck than she does to walk on land. But Promise has been condemned – and in turn, Josie is condemned to live on dry land, in a grotty flat, without her best friend Bella. Then she meets Leon, a boy from her neighbourhood. He dares Josie to do something that might mean she can live on a boat again. But that would mean leaving Leon, just when Josie is getting close to him...

Fiona Foden grew up in a tiny Yorkshire village called Goose Eye. At 17, she landed her dream job on a teenage magazine, and went on to be editor of Bliss, More! and Just Seventeen. Fiona lives in Scotland with her family.

A thrilling paranormal murder mystery by the author of Clarity and Perception.

Moving house, and to a new school, can be pretty daunting but Jade doesn't mind. She sees it as a fresh start: the house is lovely, and there a cute guy with dreamy blue eyes at her new school. But Jade can't help but noticing people whispering behind her back, as if they know something she doesn't...

Soon Jade realizes that her perfect house is haunted by the ghost of the girl who ruled Jade's school, until her untimely death. And this ghost is seeking not just vengeance, but the truth of who killed her. As Jade investigates the mystery, she discovers that her new friends in town have more than a few deep, dark secrets. But is one of them a murderer?

Kim Harrington's debut novel, Clarity, is optioned for a TV series by Warner Brothers. She lives in Massachusetts with her family.

For Flora, being sent to boarding school is bad enough. But being trapped in the past at St Winifred's is a nightmare! The uniform is hideous, the rules ridiculous, the lessons difficult, and the lack of hair products impossible. If Flora can't behave like an old-fashioned schoolgirl, she'll spend her free time doing extra Latin. But before she finds her way back to the future, she must discover the reason for her time travel ...

Tom is in shock. His dad has just been kidnapped by killer fairies. He never knew he was a demisprite – the child of a fairy and a human. Now he must trust his life to his three fairy godmothers. Their magic is dangerous, they can't stop bickering, and two of them are hardened criminals. Will Tom survive their botched spells, learn to fly and enter the perilous Fairy Realm to save his dad?

Reissued to coincide with the major Imperial War Museum exhibition, Horrible Histories: Spies is the indispensable guide for aspiring secret agents, in blood-curdling colour. From cracking codes to the pitfalls of navigating camel poo in the desert – Horrible Histories fans can discover if they have everything it took to be a WWII spy.

“Deary is the most influential historian in Britain today”

The Daily Telegraph

Terry Deary’s career as a writer has spanned over 35 years and his writing includes fiction and non-fiction, most notably the Horrible Histories series. He also writes for TV, theatre, radio, audio and new media scripts. Before becoming a children’s writer, Terry began his career as a professional actor, but he has also worked as a theatre director, museum manager, drama teacher and television presenter. He lives in County Durham.

Martin Brown is best known for his illustration of the bestselling Horrible Histories series. In 1993, he illustrated the first Horrible Histories book, and having now contributed to more than 50 titles in the series, his artwork is synonymous with the brand. Originally from Australia, Martin now lives in Dorset with his family.

Meet the fabulous fairy-princesses and create their kingdom:

Violet is the bravest of the four fairy-princesses. It might sometimes mean she's a bit rash, but her heart is always in the right place.

Bluebell has a mischievous side and lots of energy to burn – she always makes sure her friends are having fun.

Buttercup has a shy, quiet character, but her thoughtfulness is really what holds the group together.

Rosa might love pink, but she's the fairy-princess most likely to be asked for an opinion – she's got all the answers!

Susie Dent's Weird Words

Susie Dent

Even the most ordinary-sounding word can have the most extraordinary story behind it.

Let Countdown's Susie Dent take you on a tour of the most astonishing, amusing, and sometimes revolting, origins of English words. You'll be surprised by what 'fizzle' actually meant originally, and that the words you think you shouldn't use were once spoken by kings and queens.

Susie Dent has been the lexicographer in charge of Countdown's 'Dictionary Corner' (Channel 4) for 20 years, and is well known for her knowledge of language and word origins. She has also written several books for adults on the English language, including How to Talk like a Local, as well as editing the latest edition of Brewer's Dictionary of Phrase and Fable. Susie lives in Oxford with her family.
