TEAM MARCH / APRIL 2010

TRACK 1: Introduction

James: TEAM March / April 2010.

Nicky: Welcome to TEAM Radio! I'm Nicky ...

James: ... and I'm James.

Nicky: On today's show, we're talking about a really difficult sport – the heptathlon.

James: And then we're discussing rules. We want to know about your rules at home. What are you allowed to do and what aren't you allowed to do? Send us your texts now!

Nicky: And we've got a young actor with us in the studio.

James: And two teens are telling us about a scary moment ...

Nicky: What scary moment, James?

James: The moment they open the envelope ... with their exam results!

Nicky: Oh, yes! That is a scary moment!

James: Let's start the show.

TRACK 2: Sport

James: For this month's Sport, our reporter, Jake, is at a North London athletics club. Hi, Jake!

Jake: Hi, James. Yes, I'm at the running track on Hampstead Heath. I'm talking to four members of the athletics club - Connor, Oliver, Katie and Ellie. Hi, guys!

Teens: Hi, Jake.

Jake: So, guys, what are your best events? Connor, let's start with you.

Connor: Running! I love running the 200 metres and the 800 metres.

Jake: Phew! You must be very fit! Oliver, what about you? What's your best event?

Oliver: Shot put. I love throwing things and I've got quite strong arms for my age. I like javelin, too.

Jake: So, we've got a runner and a thrower. Katie, you're tall. What are you good at?

Katie: High jump. That's my top sport.

Jake: Of course! And Ellie, do you do the high jump like Katie?

Ellie: Well, I do jump, but I jump hurdles. Hurdles is running and jumping at the same time.

Jake: Fantastic! But there's one event where you have to be good at all those sports – running, throwing and jumping - the heptathlon! Did you watch Jessica Ennis win the heptathlon at the World Championships in Berlin?

Teens: Yeah! Way to go, Jess! It was amazing!

Jake: Thanks, guys, and we'll watch out for you at the London 2012 Olympic Games. Back to the studio.

James: Thanks, Jake.

Nicky: Aren't there seven events in a heptathlon? They only mentioned six.

James: Mm. Take a look at the article about Jessica Ennis on page 6 of this month's TEAM. You can find the missing sport there.

TRACK 3: Screen

Nicky: I love reading about stars like Zac Efron and Emma Watson in gossip magazines.

James: They're always going to amazing parties and film previews, aren't they? Lucky them!

Nicky: Well, you might think that ... but actually, some young actors have 'rules' from their film studios. There are lots of things they're not allowed to do. Zac Efron isn't allowed to kiss his girlfriend in public.

James: And Robert Pattinson got into trouble when he had his hair cut!

Nicky: We wanted to know: What are your rules? Here's a text from Evan in Watford. Evan says, "I have to stay at home on weekday evenings! I'm 16. Can you believe it?"

James: You're not the only one, Evan. Emma Watson wasn't allowed to go to the MySpace party on her 18th birthday! Here's another text. It's from Lauren, in Newcastle. She says: "My mum tries to control what I wear. I'm not allowed to wear heels that are too high or skirts that are too short!"

Nicky: I've got another text. John from Cardiff says, "I want to get my ear pierced. But my dad says I'm not allowed to. I have to wait until I'm 18."

James: I remember when I was 16 – I wanted a tattoo. My parents wouldn't let me have one. I'm quite glad now really. The tattoo I wanted was pretty stupid!

Nicky: We've got time for one more text. This one is from Alicia, in Oxford. "My parents let me do anything I like," says Alicia. "But sometimes I don't like it – I wish I had some rules!"

James: Thanks for all your texts.

TRACK 4: Special Report

James: We've got a special guest with us in the studio today. His name's Toby Boyd, he's 19 and he's at drama school. Welcome, Toby.

Toby: Thanks, James.

James: Toby, you want to be a TV actor, right?

Toby: Yup.

James: Have you always wanted to be an actor?

Toby: I went on a school trip to the theatre when I was 11. Since then, that's all I've wanted to do.

James: Toby, you were born with spina bifida and you're in a wheelchair.

Toby: Yup. I've always been in a wheelchair.

James: Did you go to a special school?

Toby: No, I went to my local school. There's nothing wrong with my brain!

James: So you started acting when you were at school.

Toby: Yes, I always tried to get the main part. But the teachers used to give me small parts.

James: Why was that?

Toby: I think they were worried about the wheelchair on stage. They thought I'd roll off the stage or roll over someone's feet.

James: What about at drama school?

Toby: They're brilliant at drama school. We did Twilight the other day – you know, the vampire film –

James: Oh, yes, the one with Robert Pattinson as the vampire.

Toby: Yeah, and I got to play Jacob!

James: Who's Jacob in the film?

Toby: He's Bella's best friend – he becomes a werewolf! We just changed the story around so the wheelchair fitted. In the film, Jacob's dad is in a wheelchair. So people kind of accepted the idea.

James: There's a new wheelchair user in EastEnders, which I think is the UK's biggest soap opera, isn't it?

Toby: It is – I think it started 25 years ago!

James: What do you think of him?

Toby: He's great – he's a really strong character. When people don't know what to say to him ... or how to behave with him ... he just tells them.

James: So is that your dream - to play a part like that?

Toby: I'd love to!

James: Good luck, Toby, and thanks for talking to us.

TRACK 5: School Stories

Nicky: Now, imagine something really important is about to happen ... your heart's beating really fast ... you're waiting for that big moment ...

James: Nicky, what are you talking about?

Nicky: Exam results!

James: Oh yes! I remember that feeling ... when you open the envelope!

Nicky: We spoke to two teens. They told us what the moment was like for them! First, Lewis.

Lewis: My mum drove me to school. All my friends were already there. They were all jumping around and laughing. I went into the school hall. There were the envelopes. They were on tables in alphabetical order. I found my envelope. I tore it open! Yes! Five A*s, three As and two Bs! Come on! It was an amazing feeling!

Nicky: Wow, Lewis did well! Now, how about Emma?

Emma: I was on holiday, at the seaside. So I had to phone the school. It was awful, actually. I knew I hadn't done well. And then the school secretary read them out to me ... I got one A, three Bs, five Cs and two Ds. I felt sick! I didn't do much work, so it was my own fault.

Nicky: Bad luck, Emma. Some people just aren't very good at exams.

James: That's all we have time for on this show, but tune in next time to TEAM Radio.

TRACK 6: Introduction

James: TEAM May / June 2010. Welcome back to TEAM Radio! I'm James ...

Nicky: ... and I'm Nicky.

James: We're really excited because the World Cup is starting in June.

Nicky: James is really excited, anyway, so we're starting the show with football and we'll be finding out about the host country, South Africa.

James: I can't wait! Then we're speaking to Jake, our TEAM reporter, for some breaking news.

Nicky: It'll soon be the end of the school year, and we're finding out how you plan to celebrate!

James: We've got some top tips on finding a job.

Nicky: ... and then it's our TEAM travel guide to South Africa, host of this year's World Cup.

James: What a busy show! Let's start!

TRACK 7: Sport

James: Let's talk football! Look at pages 6 and 7 of this month's TEAM. We've chosen a World Cup dream team, with eleven players from eleven different countries. Some of you have called TEAM Radio to tell us about your favourite teams and favourite players. Here are three of our callers.

Roberto: Hello, I'm Roberto, and I'm half-Italian. I'm supporting Italy at the World Cup. Who are our best young players? Well, one is a defender – his name is Davide Santon, and he's only 19. Then there's Giuseppe Rossi, who plays for Villareal – he's a striker, he's 22 and he's dynamite!

Isabella: Hi, my name's Isabella. I was born in Spain, but I live in London. I'm supporting Spain at the World Cup. We have a very good chance of winning. We aren't afraid of anybody! There are so many good players ... Casillas is fantastic in goal, and then we've got – Fabregas, David Villa and Fernando Torres!

Alex: Hi, my name's Alex and I'm a football fan. I can't wait for the World Cup and I really really hope England win this time. Fingers crossed! I think our best young players are Aaron Lennon – he plays for Tottenham – and Wayne Rooney - everyone knows about him. I like Glen Johnson, too. He plays for Liverpool. I'm a bit worried about our goalkeeper, Robert Green. He's a brilliant goalie, but he always looks nervous when he plays for England!

TRACK 8: Special Report

Nicky: Next, we're going over live to TEAM news reporter, Jake, who's got some breaking news. Where are you, Jake?

Jake: Hi, Nicky. Yes, I'm in Stratford in East London, outside a secondary school.

Nicky: And what's happening?

Jake: Well, there won't be any school today.

Nicky: Why not?

Jake: Some time last night, the school was set on fire.

Nicky: The school was set on fire. No way!

Jake: The fire is out now, but the fire brigade are still here, making the school safe. I've got the Chief Fire Officer with me. Thank you for talking to us, Brian. What happened here?

Brian (Chief Fire Officer): We were called to the scene at three o'clock this morning. A local resident saw flames coming from the back of the building.

Jake: How much damage is there?

Brian: Two classrooms at the back of the school are destroyed, and there is some damage to the school kitchen.

Jake: How do you think the fire started?

Brian: We don't know yet. There is a litter bin behind one of the classrooms. It's possible that the bin was set on fire. A bin can make a big fire - it could easily spread to the building.

Jake: Thank you very much for your time. Now, here's the Head Teacher, Mrs Collins. Mrs Collins, this is a difficult day for you.

Mrs Collins (Head Teacher): Yes, I'm really shocked. All the pupils' work in those two classes is lost. The computers are destroyed. The artwork is burnt. It's very sad for the school, the pupils and the community.

Jake: When will the school open again?

Mrs Collins: The school is closed today so the police can do their work. But we need to open tomorrow - exams are starting. Luckily, most of the school is undamaged.

Jake: Thank you, Mrs Collins. Over here is one of the school's pupils. Darren, you're 16, you're in Year 11 and you've got your exams this week. How do you feel about this?

Darren (pupil): It's scary. But I'm not at school at the moment anyway. I'm on study leave.

Jake: Any thoughts about why this happened?

Darren: Well, no, not really. It could be anything! It could be a problem with the electrics, someone smoking. Or someone who doesn't like exams! Who knows?

Jake: Thanks, Darren. Back to the studio.

Nicky: Thanks, Jake. Well, sadly school fires are becoming a problem in Britain. Some new Government figures were released yesterday.

James: Yes, the police and fire services were called to 3,000 arson attacks in British schools in the last two years.

Nicky: Three thousand? Well, this is a serious issue - you can read more about it in this month's Special Report on pages 8 & 9 of TEAM.

TRACK 9: School Stories

Nicky: TEAM Phone-In. In TEAM this month, there's an article about school proms.

James: Yes, a school prom is a big party at the end of your final year.

Nicky: Everyone dresses up in really posh clothes.

James: The girls wear ball gowns, the boys wear black suits and bow ties! But, Nicky, school proms used to be just an American thing, didn't they?

Nicky: Yes, but now they're popular here in the UK too.

James: So on today's Phone-In, we're asking: How are you going to celebrate the end of the school year? Call, text or e-mail TEAM Radio.

Nicky: First on the line, it's Jack. Hi, Jack.

Jack: Hi, Nicky. My mates and I are finishing school this year. We're all starting college next September. We're planning to go to a big music festival in Benicassim in Spain to celebrate!

Nicky: Wow! That sounds fantastic!

Jack: Yeah, my brother went last year.

Nicky: Did he have a good time?

Jack: There was a hurricane actually ...

Nicky: A hurricane! You mean wind and lightning?

Jack: Yeah, and his tent blew away. But he had an amazing time!

Nicky: I hope the weather's better for you, Jack.

James: Next on the line is Louise. Hi, Louise, where are you from?

Louise: Hi, James, I'm from Newcastle. I've got a really special night on the last day of term with my friends. We've got tickets to see Girls Aloud! We can't wait!

James: I love Girls Aloud! Have a great night, Louise!

Nicky: And next on the line is Sasha in Birmingham. Hi, Sasha.

Sasha: Hi, Nicky.

Nicky: How are you and your friends going to celebrate?

Sasha: Well, we're all broke, Nicky!

Nicky: Oh no! So you've got to do something that doesn't cost much money!

Sasha: Yeah, we're having a fancy dress party at my house. It's going to be a Twilight party! Everyone's wearing vampire and werewolf costumes!

Nicky: That's great! Sasha, please take a photo and e-mail it to our website!

James: I've got one final text. It's from Dean, in London. He says: "I'll be watching England win the World Cup!"

Nicky: Ha ha! Or not!

James: Thanks for all your texts. Some cool celebrations going on there.

TRACK 10: The Big Story

James: Some of you will be leaving school this year.

Nicky: You may be going on to college or looking for a job.

James: And that means ... job interviews!

Nicky: Job interviews can be quite scary ...

James: ... so here are our TEAM Top Tips for a successful interview.

Nicky: TEAM Top Tips!

✱ One! Before you go, do your homework! If it's a job, find out about the company and how you can help them. If it's a college or university, think of interesting things to say about the subject.

James: ✱ Two! Before you go ... check how to get there.

Nicky: You don't want to get lost!

✱ Three! On the day, dress smartly.

James: ✱ Four! Be on time! Don't be late for the interview.

Nicky: ✱ Five! Think about your body language! Look awake and confident.

James: And don't forget to smile!

✱ Six! Be calm. Take your time. Think before you answer!

Nicky: Yes, the interviewer may ask you difficult questions.

James: And good luck!

TRACK 11: Culture Update

Nicky: For our last item, we're going travelling.

James: Yes, we're going all the way to South Africa, where this summer's World Cup is ready to kick off. Have you been to South Africa, Nicky?

Nicky: No, but I'd love to go. It looks beautiful.

James: We've asked some South African teens to introduce their country to us.

Nicky: So here's the TEAM Two-Minute Teen Guide to South Africa.

Teens: Welcome to South Africa!

- We've got extreme sports ... amazing animals ... cool cities ... and brilliant beaches!
- For an incredibly dangerous holiday ... you can go white-water rafting ... dive with sharks ... try kite surfing ... or go for a bungee jump ... and this is one big bungee jump... At Bloukrans, we've got one of the highest spots for bungee jumping in the world!
- You'll see the big stars of the animal world if you take a 4x4 trip in one of our amazing game reserves. But make sure you don't get out of the 4x4 ... unless you want to get eaten ... or run over ... We're talking lions ... cheetahs ... rhinos ... elephants ... crocodiles ... hippos!
- Do we do cities in South Africa?
Yes, we do! Jo'burg ... that's Johannesburg ... is the second largest city in Africa. It's the heart and soul of South Africa ... with delicious food ... great music ... fantastic shops ... and people from every nation on the planet!
- But a holiday isn't a holiday unless it has ... beaches!
And we've got the best beaches ...
With kilometres of perfect white sand ...
And ace waves for surfing ...
And you can even swim with penguins at Boulders Beach!

Teen 1: We're running out of time, guys ... that's two minutes ...

Teen 2: But we haven't said anything about Table Mountain.

Teen 3: Or meerkats!

Teen 4: What about zulu dancing ... or Robben Island and Nelson Mandela!??

James: South Africa sounds amazing!

James: That's all we've got time for on today's show.

Nicky: Yes, good luck with your exam results!

James: And good luck to your team in the World Cup!

Nicky: See you next year!

All: Bye!
