July — December 2012

WELCOME TO OUR COMPLETE CATALOGUE FOR JULY — DECEMBER 2012

A family of abominable snowmen, an underpant-wearing superhero, a feisty post-apocalyptic heroine, a doodling schoolboy and a Superworm ... there is something for everyone on the Scholastic July – December list.

The Abominables is the last story by the late Eva Ibbotson, found tucked away in a drawer at her family home. This charming adventure that follows a family of yetis who journey from the Himalayas to England will delight every generation of her fans (turn to page 2).

Cue fanfare: the Captain is back! After five years, Captain Underpants is making a much-anticipated return to face his old adversary Professor Poopypants, who is now acting under an ingenious alias. Will the Captain triumph? You will have to read Captain Underpants and the Terrifying Return of Tippy Tinkletrousers to find out. To host your own Captain Underpants Day, email us at publicity@scholastic.co.uk for your pack of goodies (check out page 3).

Teen readers are eagerly awaiting the latest from number one bestselling author, Maggie Stiefvater. Her Shiver, Linger, Forever trilogy has sold over 300,000 copies in the UK alone. Now we are proud to announce the first in her new paranormal series; The Raven Boys (see page 6).

Hard on the heels of Costa Book Award winner Blood Red Road is Moira Young's searing sequel Rebel Heart. Teens will be thrilled by this gripping post-apocalyptic adventure. "It will satisfy the cravings of Hunger Games fans" MTV raved (turn to page 2).

For younger readers, there's the fourth instalment of the multi-award-winning Tom Gates series. Over 90,000 Tom Gates books have been sold since the series was launched last year. Tom Gates: Genius Ideas (mostly) sees the doodling schoolboy chart more hilarious adventures that will appeal to his huge fanbase (find out more on page 8).

This year, we are launching a major partnership with the RSPCA, the UK's most popular animal charity. For Christmas, we will publish the first-ever RSPCA Annual. This will be followed with fiction, non-fiction and sticker books in 2013. Scholastic Ltd will donate a minimum of 15p to the RSPCA from every book sold (see page 4).

And finally ... another year, another magnificent modern classic by Children's Laureate Julia Donaldson and master illustrator Axel Scheffler – Superworm. Never fear, Superworm's here! But what happens when our hero is himself in danger? Find out in unforgettable verse and pictures by the superstar creators of The Gruffalo, Zog and The Highway Rat (take a look at page 7).

So, there really is something for every child to enjoy in the Scholastic July – December 2012 list. Happy reading.

Henry Winkler and Lin Oliver

9781407132297
PB £5.99 7+ August 2012

Second in the hilarious new series for young readers from Henry Winkler (aka The Fonzy) and Lin Oliver, bestselling authors of the Hank Zipzer books.

It's time for Moorepark Middle School's annual Speak Out Challenge, and Billy Broccoli thinks he's got it made. With his best friend Hoover Porterhouse (aka the Hoove) – the ghost with the most – by his side, Billy's got the competition in the bag. Who wouldn't vote for a demonstration on mind reading?

But when Billy lands a spot on his class team, he starts spending more time with his new teammates than he does with the Hoove. And the Hoove plays second fiddle to no one! If Billy's not careful, his secret weapon might just vanish into thin air, leaving Billy to pick up the pieces of a demonstration day disaster!

"Ghost Buddy is first and foremost a comedy about two young guys who would probably never meet up, never associate with each other, and probably never take care of each other. The series has its underpinning ... its foundation in bullying and being responsible to one another. But first, it's a comedy."

ALISON GREEN BOOKS

Our biggest excitement this season is the brand new picture book from Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler: meet Superworm, the wiggliest, squiggiest superhero in the world.

The Highway Rat also makes his wicked appearance in paperback, and we have a fabulous new picture book from Helen Stephens, the completely captivating How to Hide a Lion.

There's plenty of fun for Christmas, too, with Nick Sharratt's irresistible Fancy Dress Christmas, Dawn Apperley's My Fairy Christmas Play Book, and Stick Man's Activity Book, packed with stickers and fun.

This season brings two of the most eagerly-awaited novels of the year. The Abominables by the great Eva Ibbotson, discovered in completed form after her death, is a classic adventure about a family of travelling yetis. It is certain to bring as much joy to Ibbotson fans as did One Dog and His Boy, her 2011 bestseller. Moira Young's Rebel Heart is the scorching sequel to Blood Red Road, winner of this year's Costa Prize, and establishes her as a superb writer of dystopian fiction. And don't miss Susie Day's poignant and romantic time-travelling story, The Twice-Lived Summer of Bluebell Jones – a perfect holiday book that will have teens weeping into their beach towels. Happy reading!
