

Pages 2 & 3 : What's happening?

News

Four specially selected news stories from around the UK and the world

Cultural input: sport, culture

Pages 4 & 5: The CROWN Story

New York says 'no' to fizzy drinks

The government in New York want to stop children from drinking fizzy drinks.

Video: What's in a fizzy drink?

Language focus: Agreeing / disagreeing

Cultural input: U.S culture, health

Online activities:

Pages 6 & 7: Sport

Olympic Torch relay... around Britain!

The UK is this year's host country for the Olympic Games. Follow the Olympic torch on its long trip around the U.K – by train, horse, balloon and zip wire!

Language focus: Future (will, going to); vocabulary for travel and transport

Cultural input: The Olympic Games, geography

Online activities:

CD: Track 7: Listen to our report on the Olympic Games.

Page 8: SPORT EXTRA

Which Olympic sport is for you?

A fun personality quiz

Language focus: Adverbs

Online activities:

Page 9: Real Life

Is this the most intelligent boy in the world?

Thirteen-year-old Gabriel See is very talented at Maths

Language focus: -ly adverbs

Cultural input: British education

Pages 10 & 11: Stars

One Direction: the BIGGEST British boy band!

One Direction is the band of the moment. CROWN finds out about them!

Language focus: Future (going to, will); adjectives to describe personality.

Online activities:

Online extra:

Page 12 : Stars

Kristen Stewart: how 'British' is she?

Kristen Stewart is an American actress famous for Twilight and Snow White. But she's actually quite British too!

Language focus: culture

Cultural input: British habits

Online activities:

CD: Track 8: Listen to the story of Kristen's new film.

Page 13: Snoop!

Suitcase

What does a British teenage boy take on holiday? We look inside a boy's suitcase!

Language focus: Future (going to, will); holidays and travel

Online activities:

Online extra:

Pages 14 & 15: Facebook

If the Queen was on Facebook

A summary of the life of our very own Queen Elizabeth – through Facebook!

Language focus: Future (going to, will)

Cultural input: The Royal Family

CD: Track 9: Take our Queen quiz

Page 16: Happy Birthday Harry Potter!

It's been 15 years since J.K Rowling released her first book in the amazing Harry Potter series! Has it changed children's reading habits?

Language focus: Vocabulary for agreeing / disagreeing