

MARY GLASGOW MAGAZINES

CD ISSN 0045-9127

CROWN

AUDIO TRANSCRIPT

TRACK LIST

Welcome to the transcript for
CROWN CD 2, 2010.

The symbol  in your magazine means there is a listening item related to the topic area of the article.

The listening activities are at the back of the booklet and on page 4 of the CROWN Teacher's Notes.

CROWN March / April 2010

Track 1: Introduction

Track 2: The Big Story: Are you a 'Screenager'?

Track 3: The Amazing Life of ... Emmeline Pankhurst

Track 4: Sport: Quiz Time – Usain Bolt!

CROWN May / June 2010

Track 5: Introduction

Track 6: The Amazing Life of ... David Beckham

Track 7: The Big Story: Cameras in Classrooms

Track 8: Sport: Who's going to win the World Cup?

Did YOU know...You can READ and LISTEN to news every week on our website?
www.maryglasgowmagazines.com/news

CROWN MARCH / APRIL 2010

TRACK 1: Introduction

James: CROWN. March / April 2010.

James: Hello and welcome to CROWN Radio! I'm James ...

Jenny: ... and I'm Jenny. We've got a great show for you today!

James: First, we've got our Big Story. We're asking: How long do you spend in front of a screen?

Jenny: Then it's our cartoon – "The Amazing Life of ..."

James: And finally, we've got a quiz! It's about my favourite sportsman – Usain Bolt ...

Jenny: ...the fastest man in the world! Quick! Let's start the show!

TRACK 2: The Big Story

Jenny: In CROWN, we've got a story about 'screenagers'.

James: 'Screenagers'? I haven't heard this word before.

Jenny: A 'screenager' comes from two words: 'teenager' and 'screen'.

James: ... And, what is a 'screenager'?

Jenny: Well, it's a teenager who spends a lot of time in front of a screen. In CROWN, it says that young people in Britain spend ten hours a day in front of a screen!

James: Ten hours a day? That's a lot! What are they doing?

Jenny: They're watching television, going on their computers, using mobile phones, playing on games consoles, playing with their iPods ... all these things have screens.

James: We want to know: Are you a screenager? How much time do you spend in front of a screen?

We've got two teens with us here in the studio – Millie and Paddy. Hi!

Millie & Paddy: Hi, James.

James: Millie, how old are you?

Millie: I'm 13.

James: Do you think you're a screenager?

Millie: Mm. I don't think so.

James: Let's see! On a school day, how much time do you spend in front of a computer?

Millie: I usually go on the computer when I get home – I go online and look at my e-mails and chat on IM. That takes about half an hour.

James: What about at school?

Millie: I don't use the computer much at school. We have one IT lesson a week – so that's an hour a week.

James: And do you have a mobile?

Millie: Yes.

James: And do you text?

Millie: Yeah, but I don't spend hours texting. Maybe 15 minutes on a school day. It's more at the weekends because I'm not at school, so I need to text my friends.

James: And what about video games? Do you play video games?

Millie: I did when I was younger, but not anymore. I get a lot of homework, which takes time in the evening.

James: Do you watch much TV?

Millie: I watch a bit – maybe half an hour a day.

James: And on the way to school – do you play on a games console or play games on your phone?

Millie: No, I read, actually.

James: Well, Millie, I'd say you're not a screenager!

Millie: Phew!

Jenny: Now let's talk to Paddy. Paddy, how old are you?

Paddy: I'm 14.

Jenny: Are you a screenager, Paddy?

Paddy: Yes, I think I am.

Jenny: How much time do you spend in front of screens?

Paddy: I'm probably on the computer for about three hours a day.

James: What are you doing on the computer?

Paddy: I'm on the Internet. I like downloading music and going on YouTube.

James: Do you use a computer at school?

Paddy: Yeah, at lunchtime we can go online in the library and we use computers in Maths class. So that's actually another hour at school – so four hours on a computer in total.

Jenny: Mm. How about TV? Do you watch TV?

Paddy: When I get home from school, I watch TV for an hour. Then I do my homework and go outside. Sometimes I watch another hour before I go to bed.

Jenny: And texting?

Paddy: Yes – I text every day – but I also use my mobile to go online.

Jenny: On the Internet?

Paddy: Yes! I like to check the football news on my phone. I'm an Arsenal fan! But that only takes ten minutes.

Jenny: I see. Does it worry you to be called a 'screenager'?

Paddy: Yes ... a bit. I'm trying to stop going on the Internet so much and go outside more. I'm taking the dog for walks and playing more sport.

Jenny: Thanks for talking to us, Paddy.

James: And thank you, Millie. You can find out more about screenagers in this month's CROWN, pages 6 and 7.

TRACK 3: The Amazing Life of ... Emmeline Pankhurst

Narrator: It's 1872, Manchester, England. Emmeline Goulden is 14. Her family are interested in politics.

Emmeline: Where are you going, Mother?

Mother: To a meeting about votes for women.

Emmeline: Wait for me! I'm coming too!

Narrator: It's 1879. It's Emmeline's wedding day. She marries Richard Pankhurst.

Mother: I hope Richard will be good to you, Emmeline.

Emmeline: He believes men and women are equal, Mother. He will be the perfect husband.

Narrator: Emmeline has five children. But she finds time to fight for the vote.

Emmeline: Votes for women!

People in the crowd: Boo! Stupid woman! What are you talking about? What a load of rubbish! Hooray! Hooray!

Narrator: It's 1898. Richard Pankhurst dies suddenly. Emmeline is sad.

Emmeline: I promise you, Richard, I will never stop fighting. I am going to start a new political party!

Narrator: It's 1903. Emmeline and her party are called 'Suffragettes'. First, the Suffragettes talk to people ...

Emmeline: Please, I want to speak to the Prime Minister.

Policeman: He doesn't want to speak to you, Madam.

Prime Minister Arthur Balfour: It's those women again!

Narrator: ... but people don't listen. So, the Suffragettes take action...

Emmeline: It's time for action. We must make people listen to us. But remember, ladies, we must not hurt anyone!

Narrator: Mrs Pankhurst and the Suffragettes go to prison many times.

Prison warden 1: Mrs Pankhurst, please try and eat.

Emmeline: I will not eat until the Government gives women the vote!

Prison warden 2: Then we will force you! Keep still! The doctor is ready!

Narrator: It's 1914. It's the start of the First World War. Britain is at war.

Emmeline: We women must work hard for the war! Then they will have to give women the vote.

Narrator: It's 1918. The war is over. Women have done the men's jobs for four years.

Prime Minister Lloyd George: There will be a new law. Women over the age of 30 can now vote.

Women in the gallery: Hooray! Good show!

Narrator: It's 1928. Mrs Pankhurst is dying.

Christabel: Mother, mother! Listen to this (reads from newspaper): "Women win equal rights with men – they can vote at 21! "Mother, you did it"

Emmeline: Now I can die happy!

TRACK 4: Sport

James: Here's a question for you, Jenny: Who is the fastest man in the world?

Jenny: Even I know that! It's Usain Bolt.

James: Correct! And it's Quiz Time. And this month's quiz is about Usain Bolt.

Jenny: Yes, we've got two teams in the studio – it's boys against girls. On the girls' team we have Alisha and Lucy ...

Alisha and Lucy: Hi!

Jenny: ... their buzzer sounds like this [Buzzer 1] and on the boys' team we have Jack and Adam ...

Jack and Adam: Hello!

Jenny: ... and their buzzer sounds like this [Buzzer 2] Are you ready, teams?

All: Yes!

Jenny: There are five questions. And there are three possible answers for each question. Here's the first question. Which country does Usain Bolt run for? Is it ... America, Barbados or Jamaica?

[Buzzer 2]

Jenny: Boys? Adam?

Adam: Barbados!

Jack: Adam! That's not right!

Jenny: OK, girls. Your turn.

Alisha: Easy – it's Jamaica! Ha-ha!

Jenny: You're right, Alisha – Usain Bolt comes from Jamaica. One point to the girls.

Girls: Woo!

Jenny: Question 2. What colours does Bolt wear when he runs? Is it ... yellow and blue, yellow and green ... or red, white and blue?

[Buzzer 1]

Jenny: Girls!

Lucy: Yellow and ... is it blue? ... no, it's green.

Jenny: Correct! Another point to the girls. What's happened to the boys?

Girls: Yay!

Jenny: Question 3. This is a hard question! What does Bolt like to eat before a race? Is it ... steak, spaghetti or chicken nuggets?

[Buzzer 2]

Jenny: Boys. Jack?

Jack: His favourite food is chicken nuggets!

Jenny: You're right! Chicken nuggets don't sound very healthy, do they? A point to the boys' team.

Boys: Come on! Get in!

Jenny: Question 4. How many gold medals did Bolt win at the Beijing Olympics in 2008?

Was it ... one, two or three medals?

[Buzzer 1]

Lucy: Two! He won the 100 metres and the 200 metres.

Jenny: Sorry, Lucy. You're wrong. Boys!

Adam: Three! He was in the relay team as well!

Boys: Yeah!!

Jenny: Well done, Adam! Now – the final question. Bolt loves running. But did you know he also loves football? Which is his favourite football team? Is it ... Real Madrid, Inter Milan or Manchester United?

[Buzzer 1]

Lucy: Is it Inter Milan?

[Buzzer 2]

Jack: It's Real Madrid!

Jenny: You're both wrong. The answer is ... James?

James: It's Manchester United! Ha ha! Thank you, girls and thank you, boys. That's all we've got time for today.

Jenny: Yes, it's goodbye from us, and Happy Easter.

All: Bye!!!

CROWN MAY / JUNE 2010

TRACK 5: Introduction

Jenny: Welcome back to CROWN Radio! I'm Jenny ...

James: ... and I'm James. On today's show, we're starting with our cartoon.

Jenny: This month, it's about the world's most famous football player – David Beckham.

James: Then it's the CROWN Phone-In. We're talking about cameras in your classroom – will they stop the bullies?

Jenny: And finally, it's only a few weeks until the World Cup! Who do you think will win? We talk to some fans.

James: Let's go!

TRACK 6: The Amazing Life of ... David Beckham

Narrator: David's family love football. They come from London, but their team is Manchester United.

David's family: Come on you reds!

David (thinking to himself): I'm going to play here one day.

Narrator: David is 13. He gets a job at the dog racing track near his home in East London.

David: I'm looking for an evening job.

Race Track Manager: You can collect the empty glasses and bring them back to the bar. I'll pay you £10 a night.

David: Wow! Thanks!

Narrator: It's 1991. David is 16.

Alex Ferguson (manager): Welcome to Manchester United, David.

David: Thank you, Mr Ferguson. This is the best day of my life.

Coach: That boy practises all the time – he works really hard.

Alex Ferguson: He's going to be a star.

Narrator: It's 1996. David is in the Manchester United team!

Commentator: What a goal!! It's Manchester United's new young player, David Beckham!

Narrator: It's 1997. The Spice Girls are a famous pop group. They are at a Manchester United party.

Gary Neville: Why don't you go and talk to her?

David: I'm too shy. She's a big pop star. I'm just a football player.

Narrator: Victoria gives David her telephone number. They fall in love. In 1999 they get married ...

David: I'm the happiest man in the world, Mrs Beckham!

Narrator: It's the 1998 World Cup. England are playing Argentina. It's an important match.

Commentator: ... And David Beckham is sent off! England must play with ten men!

Fans: What an idiot! We're out of the World Cup now. We hate Beckham!

Narrator: It's the year 2000. David plays well. Manchester United win the Premier League, and he becomes captain of the England team.

David: This is the proudest year of my life.

Narrator: Victoria and David are famous celebrities. They are in the newspapers every day!

Newsvendors: Becks Wears a Skirt! Becks Gets a New Haircut! Becks Gets a New Tattoo!

Narrator: It's February 2003. Alex Ferguson doesn't like David's celebrity life, and Manchester United have just lost an important match.

Alex Ferguson: What happened out there? David Beckham!

David: Ow! It's time for me to go.

Narrator: In 2003, David goes to Real Madrid ... In 2007, David plays for LA Galaxy... And in 2009, David plays for A.C. Milan.

It's 2nd May, 2010. David is thirty-five today.

David: I have one more dream. I want England to win the World Cup!

TRACK 7: The Big Story

James: Have you seen those cameras that watch you at railway stations and in shops?

Jenny: Oh yeah – CCTV cameras? There’s one on my bus ... and there’s one outside the CROWN radio studio!

James: That’s right. They’re everywhere! And now, one school in London is putting cameras in its classrooms!

Jenny: In classrooms? Why?

James: They say the cameras will stop bullies.

Jenny: Mm. Maybe...

James: Are cameras in classrooms a good idea? Phone, e-mail or text CROWN radio. Our first caller is Devon, from London. Hi, Devon.

Devon: Hi, James.

James: What do you think of this idea?

Devon: I don’t like it. Teachers will watch us every minute of every hour. We need some privacy!

James: But what about bullying? Will cameras stop bullying?

Devon: No, I don’t think so. The bullies will just get you in the playground or after school. You can’t stop bullies with cameras.

James: Thanks, Devon.

Jenny: We’ve got lots of e-mails about this subject. Here’s one from Christina. She’s in Southampton, in the south of England. She says, “Cameras are a brilliant idea. Some pupils in my school try to steal your things and push you around. Cameras will stop that.”

James: Next on the CROWN Phone-In is Jessica from Manchester. Hi, Jessica.

Jessica: Hello, James.

James: Jessica, do you have CCTV cameras in your school?

Jessica: Yes, we do. Our school was the first school in England to have cameras in the classroom.

James: And what difference do they make?

Jessica: Well, at first, everyone was looking at the cameras in the lesson. So it was hard to concentrate. Now, it’s normal. I think the class is better behaved. There’s no trouble and we can learn. It’s great.

James: So you think the cameras are a good thing?

Jessica: Definitely, yes!

James: Thanks, Jessica.

Jenny: So, the idea is popular with our callers today. But here's a text from Peter. He's not so sure. He says, "This is Big Brother. Don't watch us all the time. We know how to behave well – we're teenagers – not little children."

James: So Peter is not a fan of classroom cameras! That's all we've got time for on the CROWN Phone-In. You can read more about this story in CROWN magazine.

TRACK 8: Sport

James: I'm really excited about the World Cup in June. I can't wait!

Jenny: When does it start?

James: It starts on the 11th of June. South Africa are playing the first match at the Soccer City Stadium in Johannesburg.

Jenny: And who do you think is going to win, James?

James: Well, I want England to win. But other teams ... Um ... I think Spain and the Netherlands have a good chance. And Germany always play well. And then Italy are the World Cup champions ... and Brazil have won it more times than any other team ...

Jenny: So, you've got no idea!

James: Er ... no!

Jenny: We've got four teens on the phone. They're going to tell us what they think. First, we've got Ian in Glasgow, in Scotland. Hi, Ian. Sadly, Scotland haven't qualified. Who will win?

Ian: I think Spain will win.

Jenny: Why Spain?

Ian: They won Euro 2008.

Jenny: Yeah, they were brilliant! And why do you think they'll win the World Cup too?

Ian: They've got the best players – they've got David Villa, Fernando Torres, Cesc Fábregas. I'm sure they'll win!

Jenny: Thanks, Ian.

James: Next, in Belfast, in Northern Ireland, we've got Sean. Hi, Sean.

Sean: Hi, James.

James: Who do you think will win?

Sean: I'm going to say Brazil.

James: They've got amazing players, haven't they?

Sean: Yeah, they've got Kaká and Robinho – two of the best players in the world.

James: Thanks, Sean!

Jenny: Now we're in Swansea in Wales. We've got Lucy on the line. Hi, Lucy! Who's your hot tip?

Lucy: Hi, Jenny. Well, I think Germany will win.

Jenny: Germany? Really?

Lucy: Yes! They are so good in competitions. They're such a strong team and I love watching Lukas Podolski.

James: And finally, we've got Rachel in Nottingham, in England. Hi, Rachel. Who's going to win?

Rachel: England! With Mr Capello as our manager, we're playing really well. We've got Wayne Rooney, Steven Gerrard and Frank Lampard – top players!

James: And if we don't win ... who's your second choice?

Rachel: I'm going to say the Ivory Coast. They're the real giants of Africa, and they've got Didier Drogba – from Chelsea.

James: You're not a Chelsea fan, are you?

Rachel: Yes, actually, I am!

James: Well, we'll know the winners in about six weeks' time. Let's see who's right!

Jenny: That's all from CROWN this year. For more news and chat, go to our website.

James: Enjoy your school holidays!

Jenny: And good luck to your team at the World Cup!

CROWN CD 2 2010.

Copyright Mary Glasgow Magazines. All rights reserved.

Producer: Sarah Johnson

Writers / Editors: Sarah Johnson, Jane Rollason.

Voices: Presenters - Jenny Bryce and James Hutchinson. Actors - Louis Williams, Georgia Legg, Myles Taylor and Lucy Delaiche from Sylvia Young Theatre School.

Studio Engineer: Norman Goodman, at Motivation Sound, London.

LISTENING ACTIVITIES

CROWN MARCH / APRIL 2010

Track 2: The Big Story: Are you a 'screenager'?

Listen to Millie and tick the correct answers:

1. How old is Millie? 13 14
2. Does she think she's a 'screenager'? Yes No
3. How much time does she spend online when she gets home from school?
 30 minutes a day 1½ hours a day
4. How much computer time does she have at school?
 1 hour a week 1 hour a day
5. How much time does she spend texting each day?
 15 minutes 45 minutes

Name: _____

Class: _____ Date: _____

6. What does Millie do on the way to school?

- plays games on her phone reads

Now listen to Paddy. Are these sentences True or False? Write T or F in the boxes:

7. Paddy doesn't think he's a 'screenager'.
8. Paddy spends 4 hours a day in total on a computer.
9. He watches TV for three hours when he gets home from school.
10. He doesn't text every day.
11. He checks the football news on his phone.

12. Listen to Paddy again. Add up the time he spends in front of a screen on a school day:

Paddy's total screen time: _____ hours _____ minutes

MY SCREEN TIME

What about you? How much time do you spend in front of a screen every day?

	Hours	Minutes
Surfing the Internet =	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Writing text messages on my phone =	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Watching TV =	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Playing computer games =	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Writing homework on a computer =	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
My total screen time:	<input type="text"/>

Track 3 The Amazing Life of ... Emmeline Pankhurst

Which of these things does Emmeline do? Tick the things she does:

goes to prison

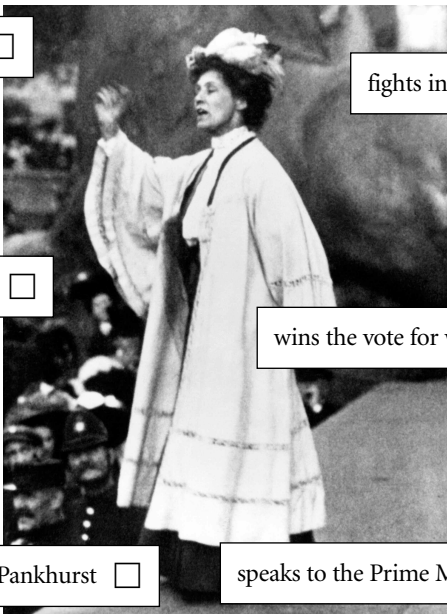

fights in France

has five children

wins the vote for women

marries Richard Pankhurst

speaks to the Prime Minister

Track 4 Sport: Quiz Time!

Who gets the correct answer? Tick the boxes:

	Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5
Girls' team
Boys' team
Neither team

Track 6 The Amazing Life of ... David Beckham

1. Put these events in the order you hear them. Number the boxes 1 to 11:

A. He signs for Manchester United.

B. He is the captain of England.

C. He finds an evening job.

D. He wears a skirt.

E. He marries Victoria.

F. He goes to a party.

G. He plays against Argentina.

H. He plays for AC Milan.

I. The fans hate David.

J. He dreams about winning the World Cup.

K. He plays for Real Madrid.

2. Match the event and what David says:

1. He joins Manchester United.

This is the proudest year of my life.

2. He is captain of England and win the Premier League.

I'm the happiest man in the world.

3. He gets married.

This is the best day of my life!

What about you? Discuss the questions with your classmates:

- What was the best day of your life? _____
- What was the happiest year of your life? _____
- When was your proudest moment? _____

Track 7 The Big Story

Who thinks cameras in the classrooms is a good idea? Who doesn't? Tick the boxes. Then tick the box that's true for you:

Name	Good idea	Bad idea
Devon
Christina
Jessica
Peter
You

Track 8 Sport

Who will win the World Cup? Draw lines to match the choices to the speakers:

Name

Country

James

England

Ian, in Scotland

Ivory Coast

Sean, in N. Ireland

doesn't know!

Lucy, in Wales

Spain

Rachel, in England - 1st choice

Germany

Rachel - 2nd choice

Brazil

Who do you think will win?

You

ANSWERS

Track 2: 1) 13; 2) No; 3) 30 minutes a day; 4) 1 hour a week; 5) 15 minutes; 6) reads; 7) F; 8) T; 9) F; 10) F; 11) T; 12) Paddy's total screen time is six hours, 10 minutes.

Track 3: She marries, has five children, goes to prison and wins the vote for women.

Track 4:

	Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5
Girls' team	✓	✓
Boys' team			✓	✓
Neither team					✗

Track 6: 1 = C; 2 = A; 3 = F; 4 = E; 5 = G; 6 = I; 7 = B; 8 = D; 9 = K; 10 = H; J = 11

1. This is the best day of my life; 2. This is the proudest year of my life; 3. I'm the happiest man in the world.

Track 7:

Name	Good idea	Bad idea
Devon		✓
Christina	✓
Jessica	✓
Peter		✓

Track 8: James – doesn't know!; Ian – Spain; Sean – Brazil; Lucy – Germany;
Rachel – 1st England, 2nd Ivory Coast