Draw lines to match each cause in column 1 with its effect in column 2.

Column 1

"I hope you can all bring some food for the class party, tomorrow."

Dad picked up a mini pizza and ate it.

"Now there won't be a pizza for everyone in my class," Jon said to Izzy.

"We could make mini pizzas at school one day," said Mr Lee.

Column 2

"Dad!" cried Jon.
"The pizzas are for the people in my class."

Jon laughed. "Yes!" he said. "I'm getting very good at making them!"

"I could bring mini pizzas!" said Jon.

"It's okay, Jon," said Izzy. "We can make some more mini pizzas."

Add the speech marks in the correct places.

We have to make a lot of pizzas, Jon said.

Everyone in my class will want one!

These look good, said Dad.

I'll have to try one!

Mmm, said Daniel.

I love mini pizzas!

Daniel! said Jon.

The pizzas are not for the family!

I helped to make these pizzas,

Jon told Mr Lee.

Soon, it will be the holidays,

said Jon's teacher, Mr Lee.
