

1 Hyphens are used to link two words that belong together, for example, 'well-known', 'self-control', 'bluish-green' and 'right-handed'. Read the following sentences and put a hyphen between the two words that belong together.

-
- A black and white line drawing of a woman with short dark hair, smiling and waving her right hand. She is sitting on a motorized scooter or small motorcycle. The scooter has a large storage box on the back and a headlight. The woman is wearing a long-sleeved shirt and pants.

d The referee lacked understanding about Melody's disability.

On the other side of this page, write down five responses that a good sport may give at the end of a game.

Name: _____

- 1 Compound words contain two smaller words. For example, wheel + chair = wheelchair. Select two words from the list below to make the compound word that fits the following sentences. The first one has been done for you.

*board, check, ~~name~~, room, car, clip, mate,
skate, ~~nick~~, park, store, board*

- a Melody didn't mind her nickname Hot Wheels.
- b Melody's wheelchair was found in the _____ after the chess tournament.
- c Each referee walked around the chess final carrying a _____.
- d The winning move of a chess game is called _____.
- e Carlos offered Melody his _____, when her chair went missing.
- f Mr Green allowed Carlos to check his _____ for spare wheelchairs.
- 2 Good humour can take many shapes and forms such as jokes and puns (a play on words). Whilst sarcasm can also raise a laugh, a sarcastic remark is often scornful and infers the opposite to what is actually said. Reread the comments in context on the pages listed below. Write down who made each comment and whether it was made in good humour or with sarcasm.

Page	Comment	Speaker	Good humour or sarcasm?
24	"Okay, Carlo, we've finished. Send in the young lady's chariot."
4	"Oh, I believe they call that 'check'."
6	"Gee, she's a good sport."
23	"There's barely enough room to swing a cat in here."
20	"Looks like you're really helping."
30	"I agree wholeheartedly."
22	"Your table is ready."
27	"We'd both end up in wheelchairs that way."		