

Name: _____

- 1 Hyphens are used to link two or more words that belong together, for example, 'single-page' or 'hard-cover'. Use the page numbers to help you match the correct words together.

Page 3	sea	-	sea
Page 6	single	-	up
Page 17	map	-	dimensional
Page 18	remote	-	floor
Page 19	three	-	making
Page 26	close	-	page
Page 26	deep	-	sensing

- 2 Suggest two uses for each of these types of maps.

GPS maps: _____

Thematic maps: _____

Seafloor maps: _____

Atlases: _____

- 3 Draw a thematic map of your local area, giving information about an aspect of the area that interests you.

Name: _____

1 Fill in the missing words (the or a) in these sentences from the book.

- a Before _____ development of digital cartography, sailors used _____ line with _____ weight tied to it to calculate _____ depth of water below their ship.
- b As soundings reflect off _____ sea floor, _____ transducers inside _____ towfish send _____ data back through _____ cable to _____ vessel's computer.
- c These vessels remain linked to _____ vessel above by _____ cable. _____ unmanned vehicle is remotely controlled by someone aboard _____ vessel.
- d Today, marine scientists and cartographers have _____ knowledge and technology to create detailed maps of _____ landscape and features at _____ bottom of _____ ocean.

2 Draw a map of your school, from your own memory. Try to draw it to scale as much as possible.

