

Name: _____

1 Newspaper articles often contain quotes from eyewitnesses or experts. Quoted speech is also called direct speech. For example, "I'd been searching since 1919," said Carter. Quotation marks indicate direct speech. A comma is used to separate spoken words from unspoken words. Punctuate the following pieces of direct speech with quotation marks, commas and full stops.

- a Many of the objects were fragile Carter explained We coated them with wax before moving them
- b That rumour started a few years ago when Lord Carnarvon died Carter said laughing
- c It was the most exciting day of my life said Carter

2 Read the following sentences very carefully. Circle true or false and write a sentence from the book that justifies your answer.

- a Otzi's body had been buried in ice for 5,000 years. TRUE / FALSE

- b Archaeology is the study of past lifestyles. TRUE / FALSE

- c Some archaeologists study very recent history. TRUE / FALSE

- d Howard Carter relied on Lord Carnarvon's support. TRUE / FALSE

- e Carter and his team were careless in the way they handled the items they found. TRUE / FALSE

- f Ancient Egyptians removed the organs through a slit in the side of the mummy's body. TRUE / FALSE

3 'Believed' is a past tense verb. On the back of this sheet make a list of the 13 other past tense verbs that can be found on p.10. Remember that whilst many past tense verbs end in 'ed' not all do.

Name: _____

- 1 Archaeology involves uncovering and reconstructing the past. The prefix 're' can mean 'back or again'. The prefix 'un' can mean 'to reverse'. Choose the correct prefix ('re' or 'un') for the following words.
 - a Some archaeologists even work with the police to _____ cover the truth about murders.
 - b A special sculptor _____ constructed Otzi's face, as it might have looked, for a magazine.
 - c They also _____ blocked a passageway that was filled with rubble.
 - d Then one of my workers _____ covered a step!
 - e First, the internal organs were _____ moved through a slit in the left side.
 - f _____ fortunately, this got me into trouble with the Mexican Government.
 - g A poet called Homer _____ told the story of Troy in an epic poem called The Iliad.
 - h Delicate ornaments were _____ damaged by any struggle and the grave was neatly laid out.
 - i An aerial photographer flies over a promising area spotting _____ usual things.
- 2 On the back of this sheet, create a large Venn diagram like the one below to show the similarities and the differences between each of the archaeological discoveries. Any similarities should be listed in the shared area between circles and differences are listed in the unshared areas. You will need to make your diagram large enough to write in each section.

