

Name: _____

- 1 Verbs are action words and can be represented in three different forms — infinitive, present participle and past participle. Complete the table below by referring to the examples provided. Be careful, the past participle of the verbs may even change form!

Infinitive	Present participle	Past participle soared
	flying
jump
		climbed
	falling
turn skied
spin
		tumbled
	riding

- 2 Reread the section on white-water rafting on pages 16 and 17. There are many instructions you must follow. Write down the six instructions included in the text and turn them into a poster for the Downstream Rafting Company.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

Extreme Sports

Name: _____

- 1 After reading Extreme Sports select a word from List A and match it with a word from List B. In the third column write down the compound word you have created.

List A	List B	Compound word
sky	boarders
snow	boarding
wind	sailing
sail	jumpers
wave	board
speed	surfing
skate	surfers

- 2 Extreme is the word applied to all radical forms of sports. Use your thesaurus to look up extreme and see if any of the synonyms provided can be applied to the sports below.

_____ cycling	_____ surfing
_____ diving	_____ football
_____ skating	_____ waterskiing

- 3 Personal pronouns are words that replace a noun. Rewrite the following procedure on climbing using personal pronouns such as she and he.

a Sally starts to climb.

b Phil stays on the ground.

c Phil is the belayer.

d Phil feeds the rope out for Sally as Sally climbs.
