

Abiotic and biotic factors

DDT is a pesticide that is used to control the number of insects in an ecosystem. The graph below shows the amount of DDT found in different birds in the ecosystem.

a Explain why these birds have DDT in their bodies. (1 mark, ★)

.....

b Suggest why hawks have a much larger amount of DDT in their bodies than blackbirds and robins. (2 marks, ★★)

.....

.....

.....

Make sure you understand and can define the following key terms.

Interdependence

.....

.....

Ecosystem

.....

.....