

Name _____ Date _____

Telling a good story

When you are watching a performance, it is important to know what makes it good. You should make helpful comments about any improvements needed, without being rude or unkind. Using this sheet, note down good points and ideas for improvement to give feedback on a classmate's performance.

Name of storyteller(s): _____

Story told: _____

Eye contact – Did they look at the audience? Yes No

Vocal expression – Did they change their voice to make the story more interesting? Yes No

Facial expression – Did their expression change? Yes No

Gestures – Did they use their hands or move their bodies to keep the listener interested? Yes No

Fluency – Did they tell the story smoothly? Yes No

Coherence – Did the story make sense? Yes No

Imagery – Did they use similes or metaphors to make the story sound scary, sad, happy or mysterious? Yes No Improvements – What could they change to improve their performance? Pick two things that would make a big difference.

Remember – think of all the above when it is your turn.

or download from

www.scholastic.co.uk/literacytime

 SCHOLASTIC

LiteracyTime PLUS Ages 7 to 9 17

Online