

Scholastic Learning Zone Privacy Policy (Young Person's Version)

Hello! We want to tell you what information we hold about you, and what we do with it.

To help you use our online resources, we need to know your name, your class, year and school name. We also store your user name and password plus the work you do in the product. We do not need any other information about you.

We use this information so you can login. It also helps us suggest books for you to read. We can also help your teacher solve any problems they may have.

We may need help looking after your data. We may send it outside of Europe. This is rare, and we will only do so after talking to your school.

We share your data with your teacher and parent or carer. We do not share your data with anyone who should not see it.

We use cookies. These are small text files. They help us provide you with a good experience. It also helps us improve what we do.

Your data is safe and secure.

We will delete your data when your school asks us to, or one year after your school stops using our resources.

You have a right to get a copy of the data we hold about you. You can ask us to delete your data. You can stop using the resource if you want to. Speak to your teacher if you want to do this.
