Choose there or their to complete each sentence.

There / Their were two girls in the story.

The girls kept there / their voices down when they saw the swans.

Daisy told Lee to look over there / their.

There / Their photo was very good.

Use the book to help you add speech marks in the right places.

My teacher wants me to take photos
of birds to put in our classroom, said Lee.

There are some sparrows, said Daisy.

That won't be a good photo, said Lee.
