

Race Through Space!

Name: _____

Design your own space station using the design in the book as a beginning.
Add labels to show where people would sleep and where the main control room would be.

Race Through Space!

Name: _____

Place a number beside each of these instructions to put them in the correct order as seen in the book.

- [] Think about the goal of the game, then write it under the title.
- [] Don't forget to add rules about the launch pads and the wormholes.
- [] Start by writing the title of the game at the top of the sheet of paper.
- [] Now, invite a friend to play "Race Through Space!"
- [] List your rules for the game. Explain them clearly, so that players know where to start the game and how they should use the dice.

Write your own rules about how the launch pads and the wormholes will work in the game.

Launch pads:

Wormholes:
