

Saving Our Bike Track

Name: _____

Complete the sentences with the correct adverbs. Use the book to help you.

boldly	unhappily	quickly
slowly	cheerfully	anxiously

“I hope our track isn’t going to be covered up,”
said Jerome, _____.

“It’s an amazing site, isn’t it?” Sara said _____,
handing Dad a copy of the plans.

“We don’t want to lose our bike track,” said Jerome,
_____ stepping forward.

“I’m really sorry that you’ll lose your track,” she said.

“But this town is growing very _____.”

“I don’t want more houses,” he said, _____.

“It might be possible to add it in,” Sara replied,
_____.

Add an adverb of your own that the author could have used in each sentence.

Dad thought _____ for a moment.

“The new houses will cover it up,” I added, _____.

Saving Our Bike Track

Name: _____

Write a word sum to show what was added to each base to make a word from the book.

puzzled = puzzle + d

pointing = _____ + _____ decided = _____ + _____ younger = _____ + _____ exactly = _____ + _____

Write a sentence to describe how you get to school. Then, draw a picture or map to match.

