

The Missing Bone

Name: _____

Match each sentence with who said it. Use the book to help you.

“It looks like a very old animal bone.”

“This is a moa skeleton.”

“How did these things get in the shed?”

“Someone is coming over on Monday
to look at the bone.”

“I’m glad that the bone is in the museum.”

“Palaeontologists from all over the world have liked it!”

Add the correct punctuation to the sentences below.

___Now we have another family treasure___ ___ said Tane___ smiling___

But Dad shook his head___

___If the bone is very old___ it could be important___ ___ he said___

Tane

Kara

Mum

Meera

The Missing Bone

Guided Reading Planner

Name: _____

Finish each sentence with the correct words. Use the book to help you.

ground	shed	driver	pot	digger
junk	garage	pile	soil	brush

That afternoon, a man with a _____ was coming to knock down the old _____.

Then there would be room to build a new _____.

Underneath all the _____ in the shed,
Tane found an old wooden _____ and a
_____.

After that, the digger _____ dug up the
_____ that was under the shed, and put it in a big
_____.

Then he made the _____ flat, ready for the new garage.

Is this book fiction or non-fiction? _____

How do you know?
