

The Moon Festival

Name: _____

How well did you read the recount? Answer these questions in full sentences.

How long has the Moon Festival been celebrated in China?

What do families do during the Moon Festival?

What sort of foods do people enjoy eating at the Moon Festival?

What shapes are commonly seen on moon cakes?

What colour were the lions in the lion dance, and who was inside them?

How did the evening end? Did the family enjoy what they saw?

The Moon Festival

Guided Reading Planner

Name: _____

Use your memory to complete these sentences from the book. Your answers do not have to match the book exactly.

Uncle Han told us that the Moon Festival takes place

_____ .

I loved the gold and red lanterns that swung and spun

_____ .

Oliver and I admired the children who kicked and spun and

_____ .

The people selling the food were very helpful, explaining what was

_____ .

We had to draw colourful pictures on _____ .

The lions had big, open mouths and _____ .

Oliver said that two men were inside _____ .

Oliver and I sat on a rug with Uncle Han, just as the

_____ .