

The Mystery of Spring Gully

Name: _____

Circle the pronouns in each pair of sentences. Then, draw an arrow to show which word the pronoun replaces.

The first one has been done for you.

“How exciting!” said Violet. “I love mysteries.”

But Dad only smiled.

“Let’s go for a wander,” he said.

The statue was of a man on one knee.

He was holding a pan.

Dad smiled and nodded.

“But this town has an even bigger mystery,” he said.

Jasper looked excited.

“The statue is at the top of some steps!” he cried.

Write a pronoun that could replace the underlined word in each sentence.

After a long drive, Dad stopped the car in a dusty old town.

Soon, Violet, Jasper and Dad came to a statue.

Bridie smiled proudly.

The Mystery of Spring Gully

Guided Reading Planner

Name: _____

Draw a treasure map to show where in the town Violet found Paddy McGee's treasure.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw a treasure map.

Write three sentences to describe what you have drawn.

A series of ten horizontal lines, grouped into three sets of three lines each, with a final single line at the bottom, providing space for a student to write three sentences.

The Mystery of Spring Gully

Name: _____

Complete each sentence with the correct adverb. Use the book to help you.

sadly

quietly

carefully

excitedly

Violet and Jasper read the note _____.

Bridie smiled _____.

“There’s a hollow in this tree,” Violet said, _____.

Dad said _____, “Paddy’s treasure was not gold.”

