LET'S
DO THIS!

WHAT IS BOOK FAIR TAKEOVER?

★ Book Fair Takeover is a fun project that teaches your pupils about the world of work in the safe environment of your school while offering cross-curricular learning opportunities.

With useful tips, suggested timelines and a comprehensive online toolkit, our free resources will give your pupils the confidence and independence to run your Book Fair as a class or whole school enterprise project.

🍏 Your pupils can apply for jobs and practise entrepreneurial skills as they plan and promote the Book Fair as a team, with strong links to the curriculum in the areas of financial understanding, PSHE, Citizenship, Mathematics, English, ICT, Art and Design.

With inspirational tips from Sam and Mark, BAFTA-winning children's TV presenters, Book Fair Takeover gives your pupils a personal investment in the Book Fair, engaging them more with reading and creating a real buzz for kids, parents and the whole school. Even better, boosting excitement and attendance will help to earn even more free books for your classrooms and library! 🍏

"Because of the students who ran the Book Fair, we were able to sell three times the amount we usually do! I truly believe that these students were the biggest reason we were so successful."

★ 🍏 Christa Cordery, Greenbrier Middle School

GETTING STARTED

We want Book Fair Takeover to be simple and rewarding for you, fun and educational for your pupils and beneficial for your Book Fair. Here are a few tips to get you started.

1. Arrange your Book Fair

Call us to secure your Book Fair dates and for guidance on how to get the most from Book Fair Takeover. We recommend starting six weeks before your Book Fair arrives but you can choose timings to suit the needs of your school.

2. Start planning

This Teacher's Guide is your essential guide to Book Fair Takeover. Read about the benefits it offers and follow the timeline and checklists for advice on what you and your volunteers can do before, during and after your Book Fair.

3. Browse our free resources

You can download everything you need, from CVs and covering letters to certificates and posters, at www.celtictravellingbooks.com/takeover.

SAM

We're here to help

Six weeks before your Book Fair arrives, you'll receive a call from your dedicated Book Fair Co-ordinator. They can:

- Show you how to get started with Book Fair Takeover;
- Guide you through the online resources;
- Share experiences from other schools that have run the project.

CREATE EXCITEMENT

Book Fair Takeover is coming! Build up the excitement and advertise the jobs to pupils. Soon you'll have lots of enthusiastic volunteers, eager to get involved.

BUILD A BUZZ

- Put up a Book Fair Takeover teaser poster
- Announce your search for volunteers in assembly
- Place a notice on the school website and in the newsletter
- Update your school's social media accounts
- Send a letter to parents outlining your plans

ADVERTISE THE JOBS

- Review the job profiles, available in the online toolkit
- Decide which positions need to be filled and how many pupils for each
- Post the job advert on a noticeboard or send out to pupils
- Discuss the duties involved and skills needed for each job
- Talk to teachers about pupils they would recommend

You can download all of the resources available in one handy Word document at www.celtictravellingbooks.com/takeover.

How can your volunteers help?

The most effective way to share the Book Fair duties is to create smaller teams to focus on advertising, finance, customer service and other needs. Visit the website for a list of specific jobs that schools have found handy and detailed job profiles to help your pupils prepare.

Key Benefits

Involve your pupils in the Book Fair and watch as they develop a sense of ownership, pride, and a greater understanding of the world of work. Taking part will help them to:

- Learn about different roles involved in running a business;
- Manage the individual responsibilities that come with jobs;
- Practise working independently and as part of a team;
- Focus on making the Book Fair a success.

CHOOSE YOUR TEAM

Ask your pupils to apply for the jobs that most appeal to them by writing letters or CVs. You could even hold short interviews to discuss what's involved. Now you're ready to assemble your volunteer team!

APPLY FOR JOBS

- Set a closing date for applications
- Ask pupils to do one of the following in class or as homework
 - Write a formal covering letter
 - Create a CV
 - Fill in an application form

INTERVIEWS

- Set up short, ten minute interviews with each applicant
- Provide detailed job profiles so your pupils can prepare
- Ask questions such as:
 - Why did you apply for this job?
 - What skills do you have that would make you ideal for this job?
 - What would you do if..? (Choose a likely Book Fair scenario.)
 - How well do you work in a team?

ASSIGN JOBS

- Choose at least two pupils per role so that they can support each other
- Publish the results on the noticeboard
- Congratulate your new Book Fair Takeover team!

Key Benefits

Every pupil has a role to play in Book Fair Takeover. Your team should reflect the different strengths of your pupils and the diversity of your school. Eager to take on responsibility, your volunteers will:

- Learn to evaluate strengths and weaknesses by applying for jobs;
- Communicate information in a variety of formats by completing CVs, covering letters, application forms and/or interviews;
- Develop time management skills as they work to deadlines;
- Grow in confidence as they make their own decisions.

"My advice for working well as a team is to be patient with each other and try and make each other laugh."

MARK

START PLANNING

Build anticipation by making sure that everyone knows about the imminent arrival of the Book Fair. Now is the time for your advertising and events volunteers to spring into action!

Key tasks for your team

- Start a daily countdown in assembly
- Put up posters around the school
- Send text messages, invitations and letters to parents
- Put a notice on the school website or TV system and in the newsletter
- Update social media accounts
- Launch a competition to get the whole school excited
- Set up rotas so that all volunteers know when to attend the Book Fair
- Assign the task of taking photos and videos so that you can enter the Book Fair Takeover School of the Year Award.

Key benefits

Let your team craft a promotional campaign and you'll be amazed at the creativity and innovation on show. Planning and implementing the advertising will help your pupils to:

- Think creatively, using fresh ideas to make posters, flyers, signs and more;
- Consider alternative media and technologies to reach different audiences;
- Evaluate the impact and effectiveness of different approaches.

SAM

"126 pupils applied to take part. Book Fair Takeover is the club to be part of at our school"

Rhonda Briggs,
McLure Middle School.

OPENING TIME

Your Book Fair has arrived! Once everything is set up, it's over to your browsing and customer service volunteers to ensure that all classes can view the books and that visitors can make purchases and place orders.

Key tasks for your team

- Lay out the bookcases and poster and stationery boxes safely
- Set up the cash desk for taking payment and recording sales
- Put last copy bookmarks in bestselling titles only to help with customer ordering
- Decorate the Book Fair and put up directional arrows and outdoor banner (if supplied)
- Choose the competition winners and create a display for parents to see
- Announce the arrival in assembly
- Begin class browsing sessions, giving out wishlists to every child
- Calculate footfall or takings and update on the goal chart daily

SAM

Key benefits

Your volunteers will have vital roles to play during the Book Fair, recommending books to younger pupils during browsing sessions and ensuring a pleasant experience for customers.

Eager to help, your teams will:

- Learn to think laterally and be creative when solving problems;
- Practice customer service and cash handling skills;
- Develop leadership skills while working as part of a team.

PACKING UP

Before you celebrate, there will be a bit of tidying up for everyone to do. Your inventory and accounts volunteers will need to focus on fulfilling any customer orders and calculating the final Book Fair takings.

Key tasks for your team

- Pack up the bookcases and poster and stationery boxes
- Take down decorations, posters, arrows and the outdoor banner
- Send us entries for the chance to win prizes if you ran one of our competitions
- Place all customer orders with Scholastic the day before the Book Fair is collected
- Deliver orders to customers once they have been received
- Calculate and check final takings and share with the team
- Fill out the online cash report form and note the amount of free books earned
- Announce the final Book Fair results in assembly and to parents
- Don't forget to submit your entry for the Book Fair Takeover School of the Year Award

Choose your free books

As a reward for their hard work, why not let volunteers make a wishlist of titles for their library or classrooms? Put their names as dedications in the front of the books that they helped to earn.

Once you have started to earn free books, you can select titles from the cases – just keep track of what has been taken and add it to your online cash report form. You can spend any outstanding Scholastic Rewards at www.celtictravellingbooks.co.uk/shop.

Key benefits

Engaging with the Book Fair will give your pupils a deeper understanding of money and business. Handling payments and dealing with customers will give them valuable practical experience and help them to:

- Develop numeracy skills by calculating daily and final Book Fair takings;
- Understand the importance of money and keeping financial records;
- Share information accurately, through working with Celtic Travelling Books to confirm orders.

CONGRATULATE YOUR TEAM

Now that your Book Fair is over, it's time to celebrate! Congratulate your team on a job well done and find out what they thought of Book Fair Takeover. Was it fun? What did they learn? What improvements would they make for next time?

Thank your volunteers

- Award a certificate to every volunteer
- Send a letter to parents letting them know about their children's success
- ★ Hand out the evaluation survey to the team
- Set up a review meeting to collate everyone's ideas and comments
- Complete our customer survey – we'd love to hear from you!
- Secure your next Book Fair date
- Enter the Book Fair Takeover School of the Year Award

"The Book Fair was amazing. We helped to run it and we had lots of parents coming after school so it was really busy... We can't wait till next year."

April, 10, Latchford St James CoE Primary School

Key benefits

Learning about the world of work is just one of the many benefits that Book Fair Takeover offers. Working as a team to make your Book Fair a success will enable your pupils to:

- Learn to be reflective and evaluate their own and others' performance;
- Understand and become inspired by enterprise and entrepreneurship;
- Develop a personal sense of achievement and pride.

"Like most school librarians I am a solo worker, so having reliable students to help during the Book Fair is fantastic, especially over busy times, like first thing in the morning, break-time and after school."

Jacqui McArdle, Librarian, St Patrick's High School

SCHOOL OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Book Fair Takeover School of the Year Award is presented annually to recognise the ingenuity, energy and commitment students put into Book Fair Takeover and to celebrate their successful Book Fair.

Enter for your chance to win:

- €500 worth of children's books
- An engraved trophy

To enter, share with us what made your Book Fair a success. Was it working as a team, making new friends, creating the perfect poster, or something else? You can be as creative with your submission as you like – simply pick one of the following ways to enter:

1. Tweet us photos or a video about your Book Fair. Tag us @ScholasticIre and use the hashtag #bookfairtakeover.

(Please note if you do not tag us, or if your account is set to private, we will not be able to view your entry, and it will not be entered into the competition.)

2. Email us photos, a video, a PowerPoint, a blog or however you'd like to tell your Book Fair story. Send us your entry to sbcompetitions@scholastic.co.uk. Make sure to include your school's name and the name of the teacher or librarian running the Book Fair, as well as any extra details you'd like us to know about your Book Fair.

3. Post us your entry – for example photos, a scrapbook or a poster – along with your contact and school address details to Celtic Travelling Books, Unit 5 West Point Business Park, Navan Road, Mulhuddart, Dublin 15 D15 W95A

You do not need to have strictly followed the structure of creating CVs, holding interviews and having specific jobs to enter – the most important thing is that students have taken an active role in their Book Fair.

The closing date for entries is 31st July 2020.

Any questions? Call us for free on 1800 728 828 or email info@celtictravellingbooks.com.

If your entry features any photos of pupils, you must obtain parental permission before you submit your entry and confirm this in communication.

Entries may be shared on Scholastic's social media channels, appear on Scholastic's website or appear in future Book Fair Takeover resources.
