Mr Bean: Royal Bean – synopsis

Mr Bean’s favourite mug has a picture of the Queen on it. When it breaks, Mr Bean is very sad. After an unsuccessful attempt to buy a replacement mug at a shop, he sees a lorry with a picture of his mug on the side. He follows the lorry in his car, through London to Buckingham Palace.

The lorry is delivering the mugs to the palace shop. Mr Bean walks into the shop, but the Queen’s dog takes Mr Bean’s much-loved Teddy. Mr Bean runs after the dog and finds himself inside Buckingham Palace. Mr Bean is seen by the Queen’s butler, and has to hide.

Meanwhile the Queen is looking for the missing dog. She sees Mr Bean with her dog, and is very pleased that he has found her missing pet. They discover that they both have the same favourite mug! She invites him back to the palace the next day and, in a grand ceremony, gives him a new mug and makes him ‘Sir Bean’.

Meet ... the people in Mr Bean

1 Before looking at the book, ask students Do you know Mr Bean? If anyone knows and likes the programmes and films in which he appears, talk briefly in L1 about what he is like.

2 Look together at the front cover of the book or play the extract from the cartoon that corresponds with the picture on the front cover (DVD 10:11–10.45). Ask What has Mr Bean got? (Pre-teach mug.) Who is with him? (The Queen)

3 Look at the ‘Meet …’ page with your class and ask some questions about the characters in the pictures, e.g. Who is in the kitchen? Who has got grey hair?

4 Read the page out loud to the class or play the CD.

5 Students close their books. Play a game of Who Am I? For example, say I’ve got four legs and I like teddies. Students say You’re the Queen’s dog. Continue with information about the other characters. With stronger classes, ask students to take over your role.

6 Read and discuss the ‘Before you read’ questions with your class.
New Words

This page is recorded on the CD.

The words on this page are available as flashcards (see pages 14–18 of these notes).

1. Look at the ‘New Words’ page with your class. Say All these words are in the story. Which words do you know? They should remember mug from the ‘Meet …’ page.

2. Play the recording of the words and sentences on the CD. Elicit the meaning of each word in L1 or translate for the class.

3. The conversational language on this page is Woof! This is the sound that a dog makes when it barks.

4. Do some vocabulary activities to practise the new words (see suggestions opposite).

Tip Try to consolidate the new language introduced in the Popcorn ELT Reader by using it in other activities in your English lessons.

Vocabulary Activities

- Stick the flashcards around the classroom. Say a word and students point to the correct flashcard. Alternatively, for a more energetic version of the activity, they could run to the flashcard.
- Play a game of charades or pictionary, in groups or as a whole class. One student chooses a word and mimes or draws it for the rest of the group. The first student to guess correctly has the next turn.
- Play bingo. Students write down five of the new words on a piece of paper. You then show the picture flashcards in random order and say the words. When students hear or see a word that they have written down, they cross it out. The first student to cross out all his/her words and shout Bingo! is the winner.
Say We are going to learn more about Mr Bean. Ask What is Mr Bean’s favourite animal? Write students’ guesses on the board.

Students read the pages at the same time as you read the page out loud or play the CD. Find out the answer to your question (Elephants).

Look at the word box. Ask students if they know what these words mean in their language. You might like students to use a dictionary to check meaning.

Interview some students, using the questions on the page, e.g. What do you do at the weekend? Do you like TV? Who is your best friend? Do you like animals? Have you got animals at home? Then ask students to ask and answer the questions in pairs.
Using the story with your class

The story is recorded on the CD.

The story can be read in a number of ways, depending on the size, age and language level of your students and the teaching time available. The following are some suggestions for ways of reading the story. You may want to combine several of these.

Teacher-led reading

This can work well with younger students. Read the story out loud to your class, or use the CD. If possible, allow your class to sit close together on a mat when you read the story to them. Remember to give the students plenty of time to process what they are hearing. As you read, emphasise the words which carry most meaning, and pause at the end of each sentence.

Children love to hear the same stories again and again, and repetition supports language learning. Reading the same story several times can be very useful.

Autonomous reading

It is important that students learn to read autonomously. Decide on a period of time each week when students can practise silent reading in class – or perhaps ten minutes at the start or end of every lesson. This will encourage the habit of reading and will motivate students to continue reading in their own time. Younger students can take their readers home and read a page or chapter to their family. This will give them a strong sense of ownership of the story.

Group or pair reading

Students take turns in reading a sentence, paragraph or page of the story to each other in small groups or pairs. Encourage them to help each other with pronunciation of new words. This can be a useful reinforcement task once students are familiar with the story.

Before reading a section of the story you could:

- Warm up with a vocabulary activity (see page 4).
- Discuss what has happened in the story so far.
- Show students a picture from the next part of the story and ask them to guess (in L1) what is happening.
- Copy several pictures from the next part of the story. Give a set of the pictures to small groups of students. They guess the order in which the pictures will appear.
- Play students a short section of the cartoon, showing an event that they are going to read about or a character that they are going to meet. For example, play the scene when the dog is jumping and barking at Mr Bean outside the palace (DVD 05:57–06:07). Then ask students to describe the dog and guess what he’s going to do next, using English as much as possible.

Tip

Set up a class library of graded English readers and give students the opportunity to choose their own stories from time to time. This will encourage them to be more involved in their own reading.
After reading a section of the story you could:

- Give students one of the chapter quizzes on pages 8 and 9 of these notes.
- Ask students to write quiz questions about the story. Give them some examples, e.g. She has got a dog. Who is she? (The Queen) The Queen lives here. What is it? (Buckingham Palace.) They ask and answer their questions in groups or as a whole class.
- Predict what is going to happen next.
- Play the part of the DVD that corresponds with the section of the story that they have just read. Pause from time to time and ask questions. For example, play the scene when Mr Bean is running after the dog and hiding in the palace (DVD 07:20–9:44). Pause at these points:
  - 07:43 When the butler sees Mr Bean, ask What does Mr Bean do now?
  - 08:04 When the dog is climbing up on the statue, ask What’s the dog doing now?
  - 08:36 When Mr Bean sees eyes in the chest, ask Who or what is it?
  - 09:09 When we see someone vacuuming, ask Who is this? Where are Mr Bean and the dog now?
  - 09:44 When the Queen and the dog are back together, ask Is the Queen happy? Is the dog happy? Is Mr Bean happy? Why/Why not?
- Give students a section of the story with some key words blanked out. They write the missing words as they listen to the story on CD. Alternatively, give students the story with some incorrect words. Students listen and correct the mistakes.
- Play a short film extract to focus on British culture, e.g. the scene where Mr Bean drives through London to Buckingham Palace (DVD 03:02–04:05). Tell students to remember everything they see. After watching, ask Where is Mr Bean? (In his car, in London). What colour are the buses in London? (Red) What colour are the taxis? (Black) Then talk (in L1) about Trafalgar Square, where Mr Bean drives his car into a fountain. Explain that this is a big square in the centre of London, with fountains and a famous statue (of Lord Nelson) on a high column. There are always a lot of pigeons and tourists in Trafalgar Square. Finally, teach flag and ask What colour are the flags? (Red, white and blue) What flag is it? (The flag of Great Britain, called the Union Flag or Union Jack).
- In small groups, ask students to think of a new ending for the story. They either draw pictures and add speech bubbles or roleplay the final scene.

After finishing the story you could:

- Do the activities at the back of the reader.
- Ask students to make a list of words from a particular category used in the story, e.g. places or verbs.

Using film extracts in class

- Use short extracts (two to three minutes maximum).
- Give students something to do or think about as they watch.
- Ask them questions about the extract they have just seen.
- Allow them time to talk about what they have just seen.

2 Tell students that they are going to read about Buckingham Palace. Open books at page 26 and look at the pictures. Ask Why is there a picture of a dog? and listen to students’ ideas.

3 Students read each section, or read and listen to the CD. They confirm why there’s a picture of a dog on the page. Then draw students’ attention to the question in the red circle. They discuss their knowledge of palaces in their country in pairs before sharing their ideas with the class.

4 Look at the word box. Ask students if they know what these words mean. You might like students to use a dictionary to check meaning.

5 Give each student a copy of the ‘Project’ worksheet (see page 11 of these notes). Encourage them to research information about another palace. They can find information either at home or in the school library, using books or the Internet. Students then write answers to the questions and draw or stick in a picture of their chosen palace.

6 Display the projects around the classroom for other students to read. After this, you could tell students to keep their completed project worksheets in a ‘Real World’ section of their readers folder.

Hinaesthetic intelligence 🌧️

1. DVD Tell students that they are going to act out a scene from the story. If you have time, play the corresponding extract from the film, (DVD 09:46–10:10). Tell students to notice the characters’ movements and voices so that they can act them out later.

2. Say Open your books at page 31. Read the dialogue out loud and ask students to repeat each line after you. Then put students in pairs. They practise the dialogue. Encourage them to use actions as well as words.

3. Clear a large space in the centre of the classroom. Students move around the class, acting out the dialogue with as many partners as they can.

Musical intelligence 🎵

1. This page is recorded on the CD.

2. Say Open your books at page 32. Read the chant or play the CD. Ask students to read and listen carefully.

3. Divide the class into three groups. Give each group a verse of the chant to say. Play the CD or say the chant yourself. Students say it at the same time. Practise several times. The groups then swap verses.

3. You might like to choose a student to mime being Mr Bean at the front of the class while the other students say the words, e.g. waving for hello, beckoning for Let’s go to London, miming a steering wheel for Let’s go in my car.
