

Big Machines At Sea

Name: _____

Look at the contents.

You can read about submarines by turning to page _____.

You can read about ferries by turning to page _____.

You can read about cargo ships by turning to page _____.

Look at the contents again.

What will you read about on page 16? _____

What will you read about on page 20? _____

What will you read about on page 10? _____

On what page is the index? _____

Is the index at the front or the back of the book? _____

On what page is the poem? _____

What is the poem about? _____

Draw a picture about the poem.

Big Machines At Sea

Name: _____

a sailing ship

an ocean liner

a sailing ship

- _____
- _____
- _____

an ocean liner

- _____
- _____
- _____

A sailing ship is the same as an ocean liner because

_____

A sailing ship is different from an ocean liner because

_____