

Crabs

Name: _____

How well did you read the book? Answer the following questions in complete sentences.

a) How many legs and claws do crabs have?

b) What do crabs have instead of a backbone?

c) What is the purpose of a crab's shell?

d) What kinds of foods do Blue Swimmer Crabs like to eat?

e) Where does a mother crab carry her eggs?

f) What is meant by the word moulting?

Crabs

Name: _____

Cut and paste the sentences under the correct chapter headings.

This crab looks like sand, when it is daytime.
Other crabs live in rivers and lakes.
She carries the eggs on her shell until they hatch in the water.
The crab can make its shell dark at night.
The baby land crabs stay in the sea until they grow bigger.
Crabs live on sand and in rock pools at the beach, too.

Where Crabs Live
Baby Crabs
Clever Crabs!