

Answers to Scholastic National Curriculum English Practice Book for Year 3

The answers are given below. They are referenced by page number and where applicable, question number. The answers usually only include the information the children are expected to give. There may be some places where the answers vary or multiple answers are acceptable, these are marked as such.

Note that answers in literacy will be varied and subjective from child to child, and a fair degree of marker discretion and interpretation is needed, particularly if children's understanding and skills have to be deduced from their answers.

83	1	Do you believe in fairies? asks Bogsworth Echo chief reporter, Helen Doughty For centuries fairies have been put at risk through the danger of human disbelief in their existence. Now fairy lovers and pixie protectors have joined forces to form a society to protect the little people. The We Believe in Fairies Society (WEBIFS) plan to change people's perception of fairyland. "They're not just something from story books," said June Thistledown. "We aim to make people believe in fairies so that they can be preserved." If you want to join the WEBIFS, the next meeting will be in Bogsworth Guildhall at 7pm on Wednesday 5th July. The chairperson of the WEBIFS, Robin Small, added, "On Sunday we will be heading down Dingly Lane to see if we can spot any fairies in Dingly Wood. Anyone wishing to come should bring their own toadstool and a bag to collect fairy dust. The group has the support of Dingly Woodland Trust, which owns and manages the forest. Bogsworth Council is also keen to get involved. Indeed, the society has attracted extra visitors to Bogsworth Wood and it seems that local people are keen to spot a fairy. However, our photographer was unable to find any fairy folk in the forest. It may be that all the publicity has frightened them away.

88	1	The Sleepysaurus is a creature like a rock garden that turns up at Bell Street Flats. This is what happened when it began to get too hot: The Sleepysaurus lay there in the sun getting hotter and hotter, and we all thought a lot. "We can't carry baths," said Niki. "And the Mean Man has taken away the hose pipe," said Rashid. "What about buckets?" I said. We got our buckets, and then we looked at the Sleepysaurus. "How many bucketfuls do we need?" I asked Rashid and Niki. "Hundreds!" said Rashid. "Thousands!" said Niki. "Millions!" I said. "Billions!" said Rashid. "Trillions!" said Niki. "Hundreds of thousands of millions of billions of trillions!" I said. "And there's only one tap in the yard!"
