We Are Writers!

An introduction from Michael Morpurgo, Children's Laureate 2003-2005

Every writer you know and love, Roald Dahl, Philip Pullman, Anne Fine, Anthony Horowitz, J K Rowling, all of us, have all done what you've done.

Like you they've faced the empty page, dreamed their dream, crafted their tale, made their magic.

That's what story making is, it's magic making, and we can all do it because each of us is in our own way a dream maker, a tale teller and a magician.
