

The World's Greatest Trails

Name: _____

The present tense is used to express an action or event that is happening now, or that happens often. Circle the present-tense form of the verb to complete each of the sentences.

Every year, thousands of people walked / walk / will walk the whole distance.

One of the most popular trails in New Zealand will be / was / is the 19.4 kilometre Tongariro Crossing.

Mountain flowers, such as buttercups and daisies, can be / were / will be seen on the trail in summer.

The Overland Track was / will be / is full of fascinating natural sites.

In the mountains, weather will be / is / was a danger at any time of the year.

Draw lines to match each sentence beginning to a suitable present-tense verb and a suitable ending.

The area surrounding the Appalachian Trail	walk	close to towns and villages.
Every year, thousands of people	passes	useful in emergencies.
A first-aid kit, whistle and survival bag	is	the whole distance.
The Pennine Way	are	of great significance to Native Americans.

The World's Greatest Trails

Guided Reading Planner

Name: _____

Write your own explanation about why people like walking on trails like the ones in the book.

Identifying statement (introduce the topic)	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Explanation sequence (reasons why people enjoy walking on trails)	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Concluding statement (sum up what you have written above)	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>