

Name: _____

Cross out the incorrect punctuation in the sentences.

A large number of these; unique buildings are, designed by architects who specialise in creating original styles, and will? draw attention to the finished buildings..

Since the Sydney Opera: House was completed in 1973, it has! become known as one" of the twentieth century's' most original building's.

Each cubic; house is described by the. architects as a "tree", and collectively they, represent a "forest".

This building, completed in 1997, is a replica! of one of the company's woven shopping basket"s that can be bought by, customers all over the world?.

The Kansas' City Library in, Missouri, the "USA, is a multi-storey complex.

Add quotation marks to the names of the objects that inspired the design of these buildings. An example is done for you.

There are 38 houses attached to each other, with a large "super cube" at each end.

A series of shells form the roof, giving the building its distinctive design.

It is made up of 27 petals, arranged in three concentric circles.

Members of the community were asked to nominate titles for the large books that would line the street near the library.

Unusual Buildings

Guided Reading Planner

Name: _____

Choose two buildings from the book. Name the main shape featured in its design.
Then, draw a picture of the shape and a picture of the building.

Building 1: _____

Main shape: _____

The shape	The building

Building 2: _____

Main shape: _____

The shape	The building