

Working High and Low

Name: _____

Replace the adjective in each sentence with an adjective that has a similar meaning.

High-rise window cleaning is a skilled _____ job.

Sometimes, they work in dust storms and high _____ winds.

Arborists have to stay fit _____ and healthy to do their job.

Caves are also home to fascinating _____ but shy animals, including glow-worms, spiders, fish and bats.

Warm clothes, strong _____ shoes and a helmet with a headlamp are important.

A proper noun is the name of a particular place, person or thing. Underline the proper nouns in these sentences. Some of the sentences have more than one proper noun.

The world's tallest building is the Burj Khalifa in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

Astronauts live on the International Space Station for several months at a time.

The deepest underground train station is in Russia, and is 105 metres below the ground.

The Eurostar is a train that travels through a long tunnel under the English Channel.

The total length of the London underground train network is 402 kilometres.

Working High and Low

Name: _____

The jobs in the book can have all sorts of dangers. Write the main danger of each of these jobs, and write about something that can be done to reduce this danger.

High-rise window cleaners

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____

Arborists

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____

Space station astronauts

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____

Underground train drivers

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____

Cave guides

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____

Deep sea divers

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____

Underground coal miners

Danger: _____

How to reduce the danger: _____

_____