

Pigs

Name: _____

Read these sentences. Re-read Pigs to help you write yes or no in the spaces.

Pigs run fast on their little feet called trotters.

A father pig is called a sow.

Pigs don't feel the cold, they have thick coats.

Pigs have strong snouts, they use them to dig.

Pig meat is called beef.

Every country has pig farms, everyone eats pig meat.

Swine is another name for pigs.

In the winter, pigs are kept inside sheds or sties.

Wild pigs that live in the forest are not dangerous.

Most sows have 10 little piglets to feed.

Turn over the page and draw a sow with her piglets in a pen.

Did you draw ...

- | | | | | | |
|------------|----------------------|------------|----------------------|------------|----------------------|
| • a sow? | <input type="text"/> | • straw? | <input type="text"/> | • a light? | <input type="text"/> |
| • piglets? | <input type="text"/> | • a fence? | <input type="text"/> | • water? | <input type="text"/> |

Pigs

Name: _____

Read the six PM Animal Facts: Farm Animals books.

Find the name for the male, female and baby of each animal listed below.

Fill in the grid.

Animal	Male	Female	Baby
Horse
Chicken
Cattle
Sheep
Pig
Goat

Did you use ...

- the contents? ☐
- the index? ☐
- the chapter headings? ☐
- the questions? ☐

Turn this page over and draw an animal family.

Did you draw ...

- the male? ☐
- the female? ☐
- the baby? ☐

Pigs

Name: _____

Read the six PM Animal Facts: Farm Animal books.

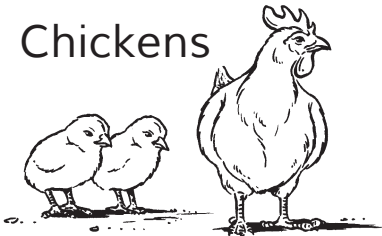

Find each food the animals listed below like to eat.

Draw and label each food.

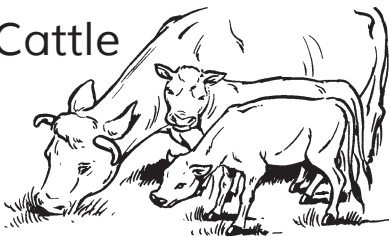

Horses

Chickens

Cattle

Sheep

Pigs

Goats

Turn this page over. Draw and label what you like to eat.

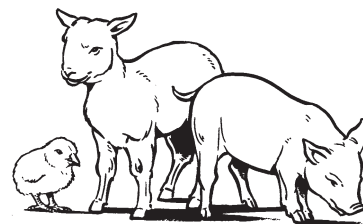

Pigs

Name: _____

Write your own project about a farm animal baby.

You will need to:

- make notes
- write sentences
- draw pictures

Baby animal: _____

What it looks like

Notes _____

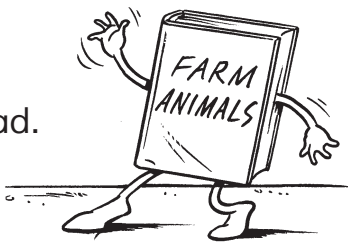

Other interesting facts

Notes _____

Name: _____

Reading log

Keep a list of farm animal books that you have read.
Tick the fiction or non-fiction box.

Date	Title	Fiction	Non-fiction

Pigs

Name: _____

Read the chapter 'A long time ago' in the six PM Animal Facts: Farm Animal books. Compare two of the animals that lived a long time ago.

_____ and _____

What was the same about the animals?

What was different about the animals?

Pigs

Name: _____

Plurals are words that mean more than one.

Use plurals to complete the sentences.

The hen keeps her ch_____ safe under her wings.

Newborn f_____ have long legs.

Farmers keep sh_____ for their wool and meat.

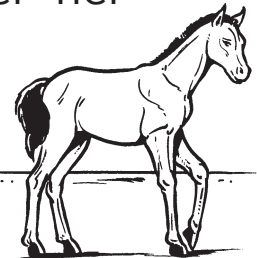

Shetland p_____ are very small and strong.

Young c_____ are hungry and need lots of milk.

Billy g_____ have beards and horns.

A sow has two litters of p_____ each year.

Beef c_____ are kept for their meat.

Write the plural for each word.

baby _____

sty _____

pony _____

country _____