1. Match each sentence with who said it.

“Sometimes, when my dad was working at the palace, I got to spend time with a princess.”

Rose

“If you like, I can stop going to circus lessons for a while, so you don’t have to pay for them?”

Ruby

“Ruby, you really are my gem. But don’t you worry, we’ll be all right.”

“You got well in time for Bella’s pool party this weekend.”

Bella

“How can I like someone who invited everyone in the class to her party but me?”

“It’s ‘Rose Ruby’ or neither of us.”

“Ruby, you came! You were the only one at school not talking about my party. I thought you didn’t want to come!”
