

The Right Place for Jupiter

Name: _____

1. Reread The Right Place for Jupiter.

Write T for True or F for False:

- Jupiter found a sheltered beach near the heart of a city. ☐
- Many people had already seen an elephant seal. ☐
- When someone threw a stone at Jupiter, he snorted and moved away. ☐
- The professor at the university was a hooligan. ☐
- Although Jupiter was an elephant seal, he made his own decisions. ☐
- Jupiter had babysitters to guard him day and night. ☐
- After Jupiter had lost his ragged fur, he had a new, smooth, shiny coat. ☐

2. Use the words below to complete the sentences.

said

replied

ordered

asked explained

told

- "We'll hoist him into the net," the harbourmaster _____ the police.
- "Don't touch him! Move away!" _____ the policeman.
- "This may not be the best place for him," _____ the professor.
- "I'll help to babysit," _____ a woman from Animal Welfare.
- "Will Jupiter be safe here?" _____ the children.
- "Jupiter's probably ready to moult," _____ the professor.

3. Turn this page over and design a newspaper heading that would encourage readers to read about Jupiter's adventure.