

Name: _____

- 1 Julie Mitchell, the author of Brave One, has used precise vocabulary to tell the story of Pili and Kiondo. Find the precise word that Julie has used, instead of the more general terms written below. Then use a thesaurus to find another precise word that Julie could have used.

a rich	(page 4) _____	thesaurus _____
b trusting	(page 4) _____	thesaurus _____
c heavy	(page 5) _____	thesaurus _____
d drain	(page 5) _____	thesaurus _____
e thought	(page 6) _____	thesaurus _____
f pulled	(page 8) _____	thesaurus _____
g feeling sorry	(page 9) _____	thesaurus _____
h flat highland	(page 9) _____	thesaurus _____

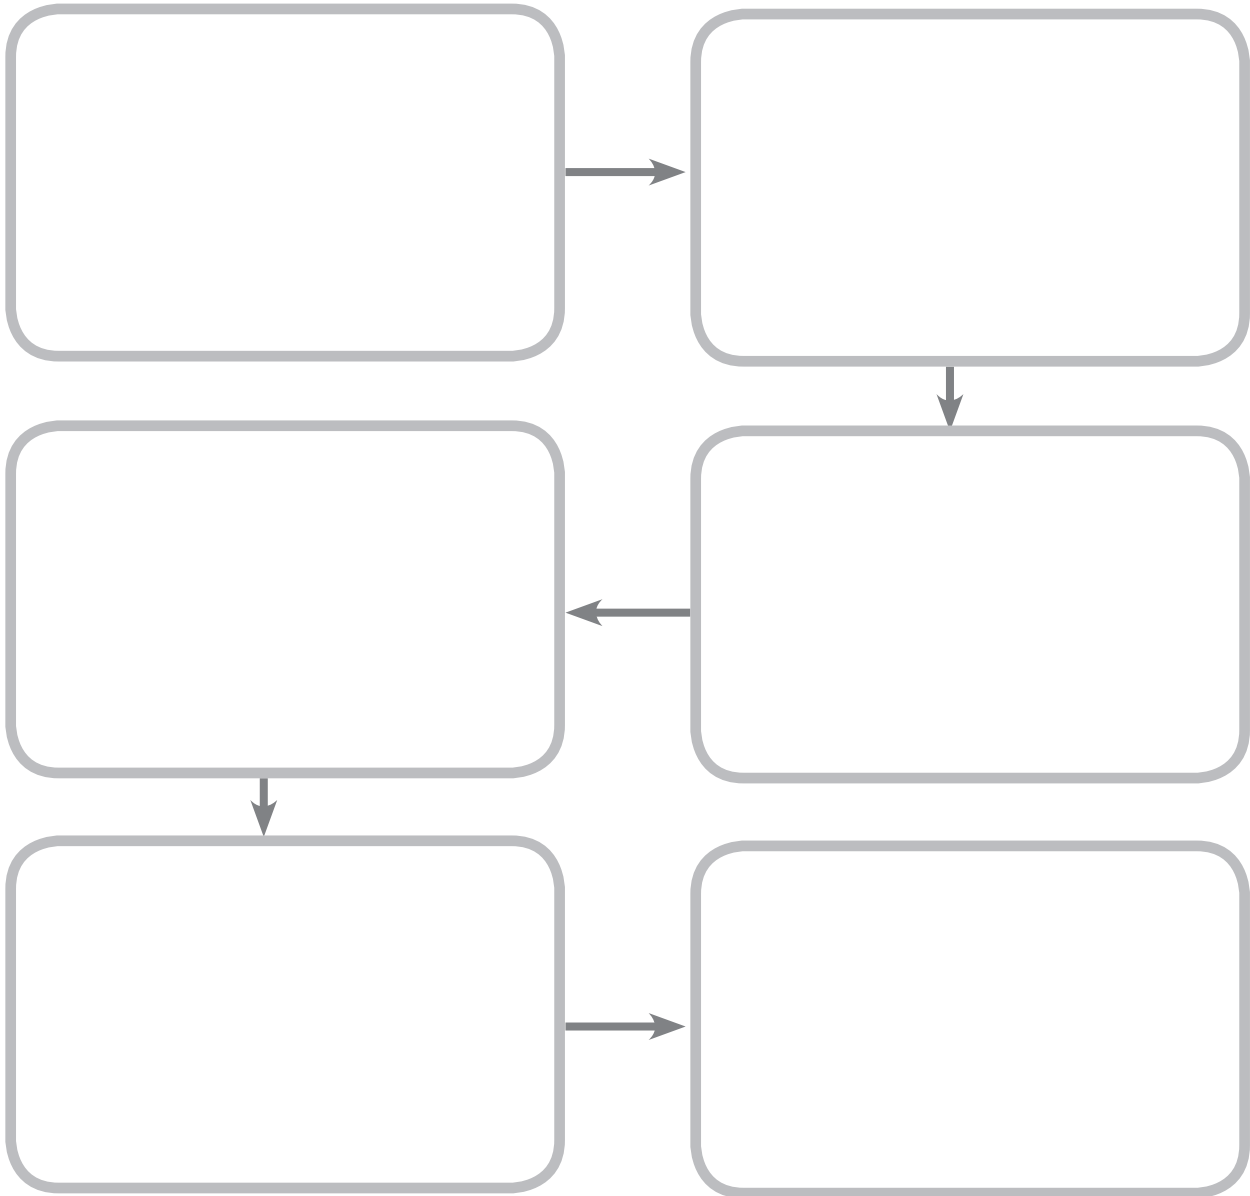

- 2 Pili and her family live in Tanzania, Africa. There are many differences between Pili's lifestyle and yours, but there are also similarities. Fill in the Venn diagram below to compare and contrast lifestyles.

- 3 Hyphens are used to link two words together. For example, 'right-handed'. Read the following sentences and put a hyphen between the two words that belong together.
- Pink legged spoonbills were sifting through the mud.
 - Bwana Selim's store had a sheet metal roof.
 - The mud houses, which lined the dusty street, had straw thatched roofs.

Name: _____

- 1 Pili became the hero of the story when she saved her brother. Pili performs other heroic acts and her bravery saves the whole village. Use pictures and words to complete the story map below. Show each of Pili's brave acts.

- 2 'Y' is often substituted for 'i' when word-building. Correct the spelling error in each of the following sentences.
- a Bwana Selim provided Pili with the supplys she needed to clean Kiondo's injury.
 - b Familys from the village began arriving soon afterwards.
 - c As she walked steadily through the rain, she had time to think about other things.

Looking back and making connections

The author, Julie Mitchell, chose to tell Chapter 3 from Kiondo's perspective. On the back of this page, retell that part of the story from Pili's perspective.