

Name: _____

1 Draw circles around the letters in the sentences that should have capital letters.

- a it was our first day in china and that was pretty exciting, even if I'd really wanted to be in alaska.
- b but when we got to tiananmen square, in the middle of beijing, and saw how vast it was, and how many people were crowded into it, they looked at the caps again and put them on without a murmur.
- c the trouble was, lots of tour groups who had been trying to get into the courtyard had been held up while the prime minister of norway's party strolled through, and now they all came pouring through the gate of heavenly peace and into the courtyard.
- d the film wasn't a documentary about the yangtze. It was a slapstick comedy. and the star was – me. darwin wong in china.

2 Fill in the word search using these places that Darwin visited in the story.

CHINA	BEIJING	TEMPLE	WALL	XIAN	PAGODA	RIVER	PARK
-------	---------	--------	------	------	--------	-------	------

S	B	K	P	A	G	O	D	A
Y	E	M	J	D	L	B	U	T
X	I	A	N	X	W	O	E	R
Q	J	N	R	K	S	M	W	K
W	I	I	I	Q	P	S	W	O
Z	N	H	V	L	A	D	A	M
S	G	C	E	N	R	H	L	H
Y	K	L	R	J	K	Z	L	S

Darwin Wong Goes to China

Guided Reading Planner

Name: _____

- 1 Choose your favourite chapter in the book and rewrite it in the form of an entry in Darwin's diary.

	Date / /
Dear Diary,
Today we visited _____

- 2 Answer these questions about the story in full sentences.

- a Where did each of the family members most want to go on holiday?

- b What did Mum most want to see in China?

- c How did the family do most of their research to plan their trip to China?

d What did Alice have to do with Darwin's accidents throughout the story?

e If you were Darwin, would you be happy to star in another movie made by Alice?
