

They Fought for Justice

Name: _____

1 Name the inspiring people from the book, and then find their names in the word search.

a Fought for the rights of Indigenous Australians: _____

b Fought for women's right to vote in New Zealand: _____

c Fought for the rights of his fellow Indians: _____

d Fought for equal rights for people of all races in South Africa:

e Fought for the rights of African-American people in the USA:

f Refused to give up a seat on a bus in Alabama: _____

B	G	Y	Z	L	C	E	T	W
M	A	B	O	I	Q	H	Y	S
I	N	F	W	G	N	I	K	E
H	D	T	V	I	H	R	D	B
S	H	E	P	P	A	R	D	Z
Y	I	W	Q	P	F	L	O	W
E	S	M	A	N	D	E	L	A

2 Insert the missing punctuation in these sentences from the book.

a In the 1800s women s roles in society were very restricted For example a woman needed consent from her father or husband to own a bank account or sell her own property

b When he arrived he discovered that Indian people living in South Africa were called coloured and were treated as inferior

- c In the outrage that followed Parks s arrest Martin Luther King Jr led a boycott of the bus company
- d This was a great victory but sadly Eddie Mabo had died a few months before the decision was announced

3 Choose one of the people featured in the book, and write about why you would like to meet this person.

They Fought for Justice

Name: _____

1 Use the words in the box below to complete the passage about Mother Teresa.

Macedonia	singer	nun	nicknamed	India	deeply	plump
-----------	--------	-----	-----------	-------	--------	-------

Mother Teresa was a missionary _____ who dedicated her life to helping sick and poor people in _____. She was born in 1910 in the city now known as Skopje, the capital of _____, in Europe. She was named Agnes, but her family _____ her "flower bud", because as a baby she was _____ and pink. As a child, Agnes was a keen _____ and loved to play music. She was also _____ religious.

2 Underline the adjectives in these sentences about Mother Teresa.

- a Mother Teresa lived a strict life of hard work and discipline.
- b She started a religious group called Missionaries of Charity, which set up many more schools, as well as clinics for the sick and night shelters for the homeless.
- c As Mother Teresa's selfless work became known around the world, donations for her charity poured in, and her work grew.

3 Write about what you think Mother Teresa meant when she said, "If you judge people, you have no time to love them."
