

A Medal for Molly

Name: _____

1 Complete these sentences by adding the reason for each action.

a Molly had visited her grandma because _____ b Molly's mother didn't go because _____ c A service station attendant had told Molly's dad about a short cut because d Molly's father rang Molly's mother on the service station telephone because e Molly's dad was annoyed at the service station attendant because f The car crashed because _____ g Molly's dad couldn't move because _____ 2 Use a dictionary to complete this table. Then write a sentence about the story that includes the word.

| Word | Dictionary meaning | My own sentence |
|--------|--------------------|-----------------|
| drowsy | | |
| reduce | | |
| jolt | | |
| impact | | |

Looking back and making connections

On the other side of this sheet, write what you would do first in a situation like this.

A Medal for Molly

Name: _____

1 Read each statement below. Write the sentences from the story that give this information.

a Molly lived in the country. (p.4) _____

b Molly's dad felt responsible for the accident. (p.18) _____

c Molly had a way of helping herself overcome her fears. (p.22) _____

d Molly was delighted to see a house. (p.25) _____

e Molly had walked a very long way. (p.29) _____

f Molly was unselfish and modest. (p.32)

2 The apostrophe of possession is used to show that something or someone belongs to someone. Add the apostrophe of possession to the statements below. Underline the name of the owner. The first example has been done for you.

| | |
|--|--------------------|
| The dad belonging to Molly. | Molly's dad |
| The birthday belonging to Grandma. | |
| The suggestion belonging to the service station attendant. | |
| The side belonging to the car. | |
| The legs belonging to Dad. | |
| The barks belonging to two dogs. | |
| The clothes belonging to the daughter. | |
| The car belonging to the woman. | |
| The ambulance belonging to the ambulance officers. | |