

A New Friend

Name: _____

Categorise these words according to the sound that ou makes in each of them.

The first one has been done for you.

outside, would, you're, you, around, our, should,
thought, shouldn't, couldn't, could, about

'ow' – as in how 'oo' – as in book 'oe' – as in shoe 'or' – as in door

outside	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

Number these sentences according to their order in the story.

"Do you want to come bowling on Saturday?" Ethan asked Josh.
On Saturday morning, Mum took Josh to Ben's place.
"I had an amazing day – and I've made a new friend."
"Do you want to play football with me?" Josh asked Ben.
It was lunchtime at Highbury School.

A New Friend

Name: _____

Add 'ed' and any other necessary letters to the end of these words to change them to the past tense.

grab _____

race _____

ask _____ boot _____

practise _____

nod _____

smile _____

Use an apostrophe to combine each pair of words.
The first one is done for you.

You are _____ You're

There is _____

Can not _____

I have _____

Should not _____

Could not _____

Let us _____

I am _____