

All About Sharks

Name: _____

Use the information in the book to add labels to the shark. Label any other parts of the shark that you can recognise.

Now, rewrite each of the labels you have added, numbering them in order of importance to the shark's survival.

---

---

---

All About Sharks

Name: _____

Insert the missing words into the sentences from the book.

Sharks can be found in _____ all around the world, except for cold areas around the _____ and Antarctic.

Each shark has between five and seven _____ on each side of its _____.

Sharks have eight fins and a _____ tail, which help to steer and _____ them through the _____.

Spiny _____ Sharks are the most _____ of all sharks.

Dwarf Lantern sharks _____ brightly in the dark, like _____.

Wobbegong Sharks live in the _____ near Australia and _____.

Whale sharks eat by _____ tiny sea creatures and small fish through their _____.

Every year, more than 100 _____ sharks are killed by people fishing with huge _____ from boats in the _____.

Every living thing in the sea _____ on another living thing for food.

Top predators eat many _____ of fish, but no other fish eat _____.

Top predators are _____, because they keep fish populations from _____ too large.

