

Every Time I Climb a Tree and Other Poems

Name: _____

1. Write which page you would find each poem on.

'Be Glad Your Nose Is on Your Face'

'The Moon'

'A Doctor from Near Aberdeen'

'The Pied Piper of Hamelin'

'Ode to My Shoes'

2. Write the title of each of the poems below.

The shortest poem in the book:

The longest poem in the book:

A poem with a place name in its title:

Your favourite poem:

Every Time I Climb a Tree and Other Poems

Name: _____

3. Draw lines to match the words from the book with their meanings.

smouldering	very valuable or greatly loved
brawny	an orange- or yellow-brown colour
tawny	glowing as though burning slowly without flames
cunning	strong and powerful
precious	sneaky and clever

4. Re-read 'Who Has Seen the Wind?' on page 7 of the book. Write your own short poem about the wind, using interesting words.

