

Famous Bridges

Name: _____

Write a descriptive sentence about each of these bridges, using adjectives and adverbs where possible.

Pont du Gard _____

Chapel Bridge _____

Tower Bridge _____

Chengyang Wind and Rain Bridge _____

Sydney Harbour Bridge _____

Golden Gate Bridge _____

Oresund Bridge _____

Millau Viaduct _____

Sheikh Zayed Bridge _____

Ponte Vecchio _____

Famous Bridges

Name: _____

Insert the missing words to complete the sentences from the book.

The River Thames flows through the _____ of the city of London,
_____.

In recent years, one of the high-level _____ between the towers has been transformed with new _____ and a glass _____.

The famous Chengyang Wind and _____ Bridge is located in Sanjiang
_____, China.

Chengyang Bridge was _____ without the use of nails or metal
_____.

On _____ Harbour Bridge today, there are eight lanes for vehicular _____ and two rail tracks.

The Golden _____ Bridge in the USA is sometimes described as a modern _____.

Oresund Bridge is the longest combined _____ and rail bridge in _____.

The Millau Viaduct is often photographed _____ in the morning, when the _____ appear to look like seven _____ sailing on a sea of mist.

The Sheikh _____ Bridge is an outstanding feat of _____ architecture.

Bridge designs are constantly _____ as building materials and expertise continue to _____.

While travelling in Italy, the _____ bridge, Ponte Vecchio, is a _____ place to visit.