How to construct a junk sculpture

Imagine that you have been asked to construct a sculpture of a dog. The body has to be made from a tissue box, but you have to choose the rest of the materials. Think about what you will need and what steps you will need to follow.

You will need: (materials needed to make your sculpture):	Some of these words might help you with writing your instructions: Verbs: bend, curl, twist, fold, place, wrap Temporal connectives: first, then, next, after, before Cautionary words: otherwise (do this otherwise this will happen) Adjectives: round, big, thin, wide Positional language: middle, end, beside, top, bottom, around In the diagram a lot of information is given by looking at the picture. Now you are using words in place of the pictures
Steps (write steps in sequential order, as they happened):
Handy hints (these could be things like how to handle sharp instruments):
