

Name: _____

Rewrite these sentences to give a more accurate description of the events in the story.

When Tess accidentally bumped into Briar, Briar told her not to worry and they soon became friends.

The only reason Tess cried at home at night was because she was chopping onions to make the sauce.

Gran did not have any useful advice for Tess.

Dad decided that his new friend, Evelyn, was going to move in with the family very soon.

Tess really enjoyed working with Briar on the science project.

Tess was very happy about Evelyn and Briar joining her family on the trip to the coast.

Briar did nothing to help Tess after her accident in the dunes.

Moving On

Name: _____

Imagine you are Briar and you now know that you are going to move in with Tess, Nathan and their dad. Write a letter to Tess explaining why you did not feel comfortable around her at first, and how you now feel about becoming stepsisters.

Dear Tess,

[illegible]

From your friend, Briar