

Snowboarding Diary

Name: _____

- 1 Find and list details from the text about each of the following items.

Item	Details
clothes
jackets
pants
boots
snowboards
lodge

- 2 Compound words are made up of two or more primary words that form a new word. Circle the primary words below and write the meaning of the new compound word. The first example has been done for you

snowboard	a board for the snow
airport
skateboards
waterproof
chairlift
lunchtime
afternoon
sideways

- 3 On the other side of this sheet, list compound words that can be made up from the primary words listed below.

chalk foot table egg rain tooth tea gum gentle back screen green board house bow cloth cup boot man ball yard pot ache sun

- 4 Complete these sentences about snowboards to show cause and effect. Refer to the text to check your answers.

- a A leash is attached to the board so _____

- b Flexible wood bends so _____

- c Each end is turned up slightly so _____

Name: _____

- 1 Choose key words from the list below, and write them as headings on the chart.
The first example has been done for you.

skills, clothing, hats, chains, chairlift, attendant, leashes, heel turns, boots, snow-chains, equipment, gloves, instructor, people, stops, ski patrol, jackets, zigzag, bindings, snowboarders, toe turns, competitors, stunts

Snowboarding

SKILLS
heel turns

- 2 Use the back of this sheet to write or draw a safety poster for snowboarding.