

Keep the Light Burning

Name: _____

1. Write a new title for the book.

Explain why you chose it.

2. Draw what happened in each part of the narrative.

orientation	complication	resolution

Keep the Light Burning

Name: _____

3. Rewrite the following paragraph without using figurative language.

From across the mainland, a great dark storm was brewing. Savage shreds of grey cloud swirled. Bruised purple lightning flashed inside the clouds, while curtains of rain swept in vertical stripes across the sea.

4. Add figurative language to make this paragraph more interesting.

Within moments, her smile vanished as the basket swung above the sea. When they reached the patch of grass on the cliff, the man operating the cable greeted the family with a wild grin.

