

Name: _____

Make your own poster for a play that you would like to perform at your school.

WANTED

Actors, singers, dancers, _____

We need you for our all-school play,

THE _____

A musical adventure set in _____

_____

Roll up, roll up for auditions!

When: _____

Where: _____

For more information, see _____ (Drama teacher)

Name: _____

Insert the missing adjectives into these sentences.

secret, forced, wonderful, favourite, wooden, missing

Ms Norton laughed. "They are _____ characters, aren't they?"

"The Mystery of the _____ Elephant is my _____ book!" said Miles, enthusiastically.

He moved forward and read some lines from the script in his hand, but his voice sounded _____ and _____.

"That is my _____ weapon," said Waldo, leaning forward and waving the mop.

Insert the missing adverbs into the sentences.

awkwardly, absolutely, excitedly, extremely, realistically

They were talking _____ about a new TV program.

There was a loud thump and a cry of pain as Miles fell _____ to the ground.

He knew, _____, that his dream of being the lead character in the school play was over.

"To be honest, I was _____ disappointed at first, but I'm pleased with Ms Norton's new arrangement."

"That was _____ fabulous!" said Ms Norton, as the actors walked back into the wings.