- 1 The author uses visual imagery to help the reader to picture the setting. Read the paragraphs which describe the view from Heaven's Peak. On a separate piece of paper, sketch the scene. (Use a highlighter pen on the text below to indicate the things that you will need to include.)

(page 8) When she reached the summit, Kaitlyn walked around. Surrounding the mountain were deep green forests. Small lakes were scattered about in the wilderness far below. Distant mountains were speckled with snowfields and tiny glaciers. There were no signs of people anywhere. Now she knew why her father had talked about this place all these years. It was incredible!

(page 11) The wind whistled over the summit of Heaven's Peak. Dad and Kaitlyn stood together, looking out at the distant mountains. Far below, the sun glistened on Two Medicine Lake.

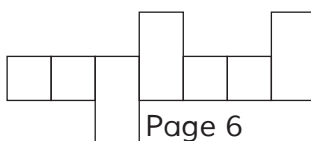

- 2 The following words are written in their plural form (meaning more than one). Write them in their singular form (meaning only one) in the table below. Use a dictionary to check spelling.

Plural	Singular	Plural	Singular
Moose		Feet
Photos		Mountains
Elk		Wolves
Lions		Colleges

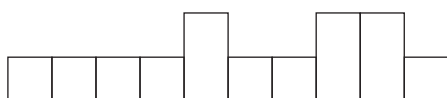

- 3 Use the page number clues to find the following words that contain the 'ie' letter pattern. In each word, the 'i' and 'e' are next to each other, not separated by other letters.

Looking back and making connections

Glacier National Park is as beautiful as it was twenty years ago. On the back of this sheet, write a paragraph to explain why you think that this national park has maintained its beauty, when so many other special places have been ruined.

Name: _____

- 1 Kaitlyn and her father used many clues to identify the wolves before they actually sighted them. Search the text for the information that belongs under the following headings.

Behaviour clues	Habitat clues	Track clues

- 2 When changing words from singular (one) to plural (more than one), there are some general rules to follow. With most words you simply add 's'.

Words that end in 'ch', 'th', 'ss', 'x' or 'z' — add 'es'.

Words that end in 'f' — drop the 'f' and add 'ves'.

Some words are both singular and plural — sheep.

Some words change altogether — 'mouse' becomes 'mice'.

The following words are written in their singular form. Write each word in its plural form. Use a dictionary to check your answers.

Singular	Plural	Singular	Plural
Lake		Deer
Lens		Photograph
Coyote		Torch
Grass		Silhouette
Wolf		Person

- 3 Kaitlyn's father explained that it would be too 'controversial' to bring wolves back to the park. Fill in both sides of the argument below.
