

Name: _____

- 1 Authors often use language that refers to time when they are giving information. For example: The first movies with sound were shown in the 1920s. Select the best word or phrase that refers to time, to complete the sentences below.

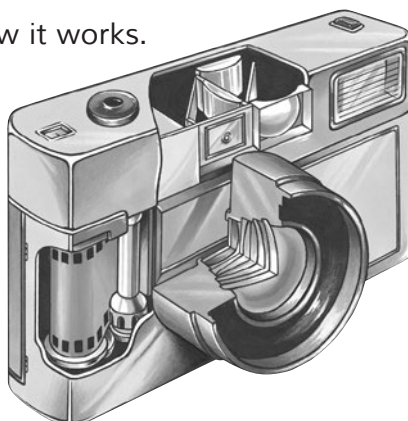

today earliest modern thousands of years first later last 50 years early

- a People have been creating art for _____
- b Some of the _____ pictures we know are of cave paintings.
- c The _____ paints were made from plants.
- d _____, artists started using oil paint.
- e In _____ art all kinds of surfaces and paints are used.
- f In the _____ acrylic paints that dry quickly have become popular.
- 2 All of the following words have the long 'a' sound. Say them and listen for the 'a' sound. Sort the words into the correct boxes below. The first one has been done.

paintings	today	landscapes	create	information
made	make	decorate	they	portray
cave	celebrate	ancient	way	space
change	gave	take	paint

a-e	ai	ay
make ey	a

- 3 Label the camera to explain how it works.

Name: _____

1 Writers use quotation marks when writing a title. Sometimes an author uses quotation marks to emphasise certain words. Read each of the following sentences and decide whether the quotation marks indicate titles or have been used for emphasis. Circle your choice.

a In 'Sunflowers', Vincent van Gogh used thick oil paint to show how he loved the strength of the bursting colours of the flowers.

Title	Emphasis
-------	----------

b When Muybridge looked at his strip of 'high-speed' images, he had a set that showed a moving horse.

Title	Emphasis
-------	----------

c The new projector was called a kinetoscope, which simply means 'something for watching moving pictures'.

Title	Emphasis
-------	----------

d The first movie that told a new, imaginative story of its own was 'The Great Train Robbery'.

Title	Emphasis
-------	----------

2 People often have titles. For example, someone who teaches is a teacher. Use the clues and the page numbers to fill in the crossword with the correct job titles.

Across

2. An artist who creates animations.

(Page 16)

4. Someone who comes up with new inventions. (Page 12)

6. A person or creature in an animated film. (Page 22)

8. Someone who acts in a movie. (Page 14)

9. Someone who takes photographs. (Page 6)

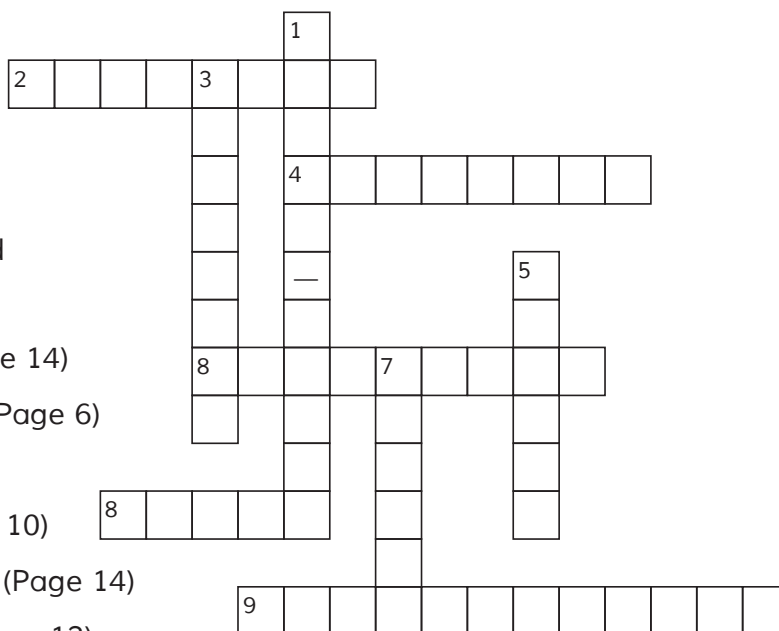

Down

1. A person who makes movies. (Page 10)

3. A group of people viewing a movie. (Page 14)

5. Someone who watches a movie. (Page 13)

7. Someone who creates artwork. (Page 5)

Looking back and making connections

On the back of this page, write a set of instructions for 'How To Make A Phenakistoscope' (Page 17). Remember to write the instructions in steps. Try to use a new step for each action. If you have time, make a phenakistoscope using the stencil on page 17.